

City Plans New Rd. Pact with Co.

The City of Farmington is in line to increase its share of state gas and weight tax money for the proposed widening of Farmington Road between Eight and Nine Mile Road is completed, under a new agreement planned with Oakland County.

The City will receive a flat $3,000 a year for the maintenance and improvement of the mile stretch of highway instead of just $1,750 which is returned in gas and weight taxes for each mile of major road under City jurisdiction. The City will negotiate a maintenance contract with the County on a yearly basis for the upkeep on the road once it is improved to a four-lane highway and will have no obligation to participate in total for future capital improvements.

In the past, County roads improved by the City were added to the City's major road system and applied to their credit for gas and weight tax returns from the state. Since the County receives a higher percentage of gas and weight tax returns (37 percent) as compared with the City (18 percent), the City can gain an additional $1,250 by leaving jurisdiction of the road with the County.

Incorporation

(Continued from Page 1) der the present government are provided on a special assessment basis, service charges, and revenue from City rule. Under a City, water and sewer departments would be a part of City operations and through the charter could continue to be self-supporting.

Refuse disposal could continue to operate as it is now under funds permitted by the charter.

HEALTH SERVICES are now provided through the County Health Department. Under a City, County Health services could continue to be used and the City could have its own Health officials.

ROADS and road maintenance are maintained by the County Road Commission at present. Under City government the City would take over maintenance and construction of roads in most cities the State returned revenues are sufficient to maintain a high type of service. Speedy and planned improvements could be planned for procedures.

The Township has two Justices of the Peace with Jurisdiction for Civil Cases up to $300. Under a Charter, Justices of the Peace would have Jurisdiction for Civil Cases up to $500, or Municipal Court with jurisdiction up to $1,500.

The Township's building department pays its own way through permit fees. A City could continue the same service through a community fund.

UNDER "ELECTIVE" services, the report stated that incorporation would not affect it. All other elective services may be included in current budgets within funds permitted by the Charter. General Obligation Bonds may be issued by the vote of the people, or special assessment districts may be established.

Under a Finance Operation, the report stated that the Township has been allocated 1.2 mills for operating and may make special levies voted by the people for special services, but has no budget control on money earmarked for the specific services. Under a City, the tax limitation may be set at any amount less than 20 mills and the City budget would control all money for departments and services.

Under a Debt Limitation, the Township may appropriate ten mills per year for purchase of public buildings if approved by the voters.

East Jr. High Selling Pancakes For A Cause

The more pancakes students at East Junior High School in Farmington and their parents can eat, the sooner the school will have a usable athletic field.

Proceeds from a pancake supper, slated from 5:30 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 1, in the school cafeteria, 25000 Middlefield south of 11 Mile Road, are earmarked for a physical education field.

The supper will be co-sponsored by the Student Council and the parent's organization. The present athletic field is considered hazardous, said Victor J. Stockell, president of the parent's group, because of the steep terrain and rocky clay. Grading alone will not solve the problem, because it only brings more stones and rocks to the surface.

PLANS CALL for the entire field to be covered with a good grade of top soil and then provided with facilities for sports both during and after school. For economy, family tickets will be sold in addition to adult tickets. The menu includes pancakes, sausage, applesauce and choice of beverage.

Students in the homeroom selling the most tickets to the supper will be guests of the East Junior high faculty at the annual Student-Faculty basketball game.

Fires Decline 38% in 1965

The Farmington Township Fire Department released its report to Township officials this morning, claiming a decline of 38 percent in the total number of calls made in 1965 by Township firemen over the previous 12-month period.

Township firemen responded to a total of 351 fire alarms last year, down from 554 calls being taken up with grass fires where there were 130. There were 58 home fires, 47 car fires, 44 residential fires, 49 miscellaneous calls and 13 farm fires turned into the Farmington Township Fire Department in 1965.

CHIEF GEORGE HUME of the Township Fire Department said, "The largest reason for the decrease (of 351 fire calls in 1965 compared with nearly 500 in 1964) was 101 fewer grass fires than in 1964. There were also three fewer false alarms."

The total estimated dollar loss caused by fires in 1965 was $116,216, which is down considerably from the fire loss in 1964 of $184,024," Chief Hume stated.

There was no loss of life caused by fire last year in either the City or Township of Farmington. The principal cause of most 1965 fires was labeled by Chief Hume as "careless burning of rubbish," followed closely by careless smoking and careless use of matches.

"WE STILL FIND overusing kerosene," Chief Hume stated. "This seems to solve the fire blowing problem but these people don't realize that this overloads the wires and eventually burns the insulation off the wires. And when bare wires behind walls cause fires, electrical damage often results before the blaze can ever be brought under control. The same thing happens when unauthorized extension cords are used," Chief Hume emphasized.

The Farmington Township Fire Department joins with the Farmington City Department of Public Safety in urging everyone to check fire hazards in the home and job, on the alert for possible ways to prevent and safeguard against fires.

QUESTION: What obligations would we be taking on as a City that we do not have now?

ANSWER: The principal item would be the maintenance which our last report showed could be handled better for less money.

QUESTION: Would the proposed road maintenance payroll cover 8 or 10 men, and how many pieces of equipment are included in your cost estimates?

ANSWER: The payroll was based on 12 men and office personnel and included retirement and other fringe benefits comparable to other communities. The report allowed plus $15,000 for miscellaneous equipment. The estimates were purposely placed high so that we wanted to go higher than we expected rather than lower.

QUESTION: You say the gas and weight taxes will increase each year. Why that if the roads don't change?

ANSWER: The revenue has increased about 5 percent a year over the last several years. These predictions are based on the general increase in economy, increased use of the roads and additional miles of roads that go.

QUESTION: What would the tax be on a 20 mill rate for a house? Also can more than 20 mills be levied?

ANSWER: The tax would be, under present equalized valuation, about $200. A charter is limited to 20 mills, but can be checked by the Attorney General and Governor's offices.

QUESTION: Can't additional amounts in excess of the 20 mills be voted?

ANSWER: A general obligation bond issue could be voted, but it would take a 51 percent vote of property owners to approve it.
