Shop In Friendly Farmington

Mothers Drumming Up Support For Troop 389 Boy Scout Band

Spring comes marching in to Farmington with vim and vigor. The vim and vigor is being supplied by the Band Mothers Club of Boy Scout Troop 389, and the marching and music is the business of their 25 sons who are members of the Troop Band.

Boy Scout Troop 389 is sponsored by The Nardin Park Methodist Church in Farmington, and is one of the only Marching bands in Scouting in this part of the country.

The Band was organized about a year ago and is comprised of an enthusiastic group of youngsters, none of which is over 14 years of age. In most junior drum and bugle corps in bands, this is the minimum age of admittance.

THE TROOP BAND is badly in need of drums and other music equipment. The lads in the Band had been trying to get the much needed equipment without much success, when the mothers, led by Mrs. Maribel Chalmers, stepped in and sounded the call for help.

The call for help in their fund raising campaign has been answered by many different individuals and merchants with the end result that the mothers are sponsoring a Spring Fashion Show to be held Wednesday, March 16, at 7 p.m. in the O. E. Duncker Junior High School gym on 12 Mile Road.

Even though Farmington is growing and becoming a community of no mean stature, it still retains its country type of enthusiasm when it comes to rallying around a worthwhile cause to help its people.

The North Farmington High School Stage Band is furnishing the music for the Fashion Show. Demers Department Store is providing all of the Spring clothes that are to be modeled by the women. Another Business which was eager to help out was Howard's Coiffures who will do all of the hair styles for the models.

NO PROJECT IS complete without posters, and these were artistically done by the New Mercy High School Art Department. Many other individuals and merchants have donated prizes to be given away at the Show. All this goes to prove that Farmington is still a great place to live.

The Band Mothers Club of Troop 389 cordially extends an invitation to all to attend the Fashion Show and enjoy dessert and cards.

Pack 167 Has
First Banquet

Cub Pack 167 held their first Blue and Gold Banquet on Friday, February 18, at Highmeadow School. Each den made colorful table decorations and the potluck dinner was a big success. The banquet was held in observance of the 56th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, and carried out the theme "Breakthrough for Youth".

Achievement awards were presented to the following Cubs: Mark Vaser, Bear Badge; William Roller, Wolf Badge; Terry Suetterlin, Gold and Silver Arrow under Wolf; Mike Majeski, Gold Arrow under Bear Badge; Chris Breneman and Scott Frankhouse, Silver Arrow under Wolf; Terry Trout, 1 year service star pin; Paul Townley, Deemer Badge.

A sound film on Auto Racing was shown to the boys.

International Dinner Set
At Highmeadow

The International Dinner is the next item on the calendar for the Highmeadow PTA. The dinner, which will be a smorgasbord of foreign cookery, will be held on Tuesday evening, March 8, from 6 to 8:30 p.m., at Highmeadow School.

Each family attending is asked to bring a salad, main or side dish, preferably foreign, to serve 10 to 12 people. The PTA will provide the coffee, milk, rolls and ice cream at a minimum cost. Each family will need to bring their own plates, silver and napkins. Cups will be furnished.

The children will decorate the school with an "International Theme" under the direction of the school art department. Some of the children are making national costumes to wear and everyone is urged to come as festive and "International" as possible. Wooden shoes, Dutch hats or just a shamrock in the lapel, will be considered appropriate dress for the evening.

Anyone who is interested in good eating is invited to attend.

Eagle School P-TA
Meeting Set March 7

Mr. Douglas Smith, Interim Director of Special Education for the Farmington Public Schools, will explain the educational and orthopedic programs at Eagle School at the P-TA meeting Monday, March 7, at 8 p.m. Slides will be shown and the instructors will be present to help in the discussion of their duties and activities.

P-TA sponsored Boy and Girl Scouts. Cub and Brownie troops will have tables set up with displays of projects and achievements for everyone to see.
