Doll Hunt for Girls.
Little girls never have enough dolls, and realizing this fact gave a clever mother the keynote for the party which she gave her six-year-old daughter. There were twenty guests and they were told that scattered over the lawn, hidden behind bushes and all throughout the downstairs and the porches, they were to hunt for dolls, paper dolls, clothed dolls, china dolls and black and white ones; such a merry time, and each little hunter was given a dainty box in which to put the spoils. Fifteen or twenty minutes was allowed for this exciting pastime, then a trumpet was blown and all the children came on the porch to have their dollies counted. Each one kept what she had and the one who had the most was given a pretty but inexpensive doll as a reward and then right in the middle of the afternoon the refreshments were served, consisting of gingerbread dolls with white frosting, buttons and trimming, and ice cream frozen in shape of baby dolls. At half after five goodbyes were said. The party began at three. Luncheon was served under a big umbrella on the lawn.

another time. I give a specimen copy of questions, with the answers. Each person fills in the answer to one question and then passes the slip on to the next neighbor, who replies to the next question. When the slip is full one is returned to the hostess, who will read the answers aloud, giving the name of the one who writes the last answer as the "author." You see the possibilities are very grave, and there is considerable educational value attached to it if the questions are taken in earnest, and they could be used by a teacher with her pupils to get an expression of each one's preferences, by having one person answer all the questions and turn in the slips to her. You see there is always some use in "Confessions," and this scheme may add to a closing school party.

Young Grammarian.
Jack walked into the house rubbing his nose, and trying hard to keep back his tears. After he had gained control of his feelings, he turned to his mother and said:
"Mother, Bobby Brown is the worstest boy that ever lived."
"There is no such word as 'worstest,' my dear. You mean that he is the worst boy that ever lived."
"Worst, mum! Well, he's lots badder than that!"

Original Sort of Ham.
A lady gave a luncheon recently and explained that she always cooked ham by the recipe used by Thomas Jefferson, which had been handed down in her family for years.
This recipe required that the ham be cooked for about two hours by simmering, but under no condition must it be allowed to boil.
The ham was on the stove, its destination presided over by a young colored woman from up in the mountains. "Jane," called the mistress of the house, "don't let that ham boil."
"No'm," replied Jane, "it ain't gwine to boil no ham. It's on the stove now just a simmerin'!"

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN TORE HER CLOTHES

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Malone, N. Y. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has certainly done me a lot of good. I first heard of it when I was a child and I always said that if I ever had female trouble I would take it. I suffered from organic inflammation and would have spells when I would be in such pain that I would tear my clothes. One day my husband got the neighbors in to see what the matter was but they could not help me. My first thought was for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I sent my husband out for it and took it until I was entirely cured. I am a woman of perfect health and my health and happiness came from Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine. You may rest assured that I do all I can to recommend your wonderful medicine to my friends."—Mrs. F. W. Sprunt, Route No. 3, Malone, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down, feeling faint, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Libby's Veal Loaf
A Picnic Favorite

Good at home, too. So handy for a dainty lunch that you don't need to cook a meal. As a sandwich meat it has no equal; if there are a dozen other Libby's Specialties at your grocers, get acquainted with them. Try Libby's Veal Loaf first. Cut the contents of one can of Veal Loaf into quarter-inch slices. Fry golden brown in small quantity of butter. Garnish with cross.

Second Cider—I've been wasting time in a glass eye.

FORGOT DESIRE TO QUESTION
Chairman's Reception of Would-Be Interrogator Somehow Discovers the Rest of Them.

At a political meeting in a certain New South Wales gold-mining district the chair was taken by an attorney, who, as the candidate during his speech was much interrupted by hootings and rough chaff, and his chairman was soon in a state of boiling indignation. Smothering his wrath, however, he pacified the "boys" by assuring them that at the end of the candidate's speech they should be at liberty to put any question they chose. Accordingly, at the end of the harangue he arose and inquired in stentorian tones and in a rich Irish brogue: "His 'lany glattam' a question to ask?" A stout Welsh miner, who had been a conspicuous disturber of the peace of the evening, shuffled slowly up the steps of the platform. But at the top he was met by the chairman, who, without the slightest warning, delivered a terrific left-and-righter, and sent the Welshman sprawling on his back. "Now," roared the chairman, "has any other gentleman a question to ask?"—and there was no response.

PAINFUL TRYING TIMES

Housework is hard enough for a healthy woman. The wife who has a bad back, who is weak or tired all the time, finds her duties a heavy burden. Thousands of nervous, discouraged, ailing women have learned the wisdom to seek relief from their troubles to sick kidneys—have found quick and thorough relief through using Doan's Kidney Pills. The painful trying times of woman's life are much easier to bear if the kidneys are well.

SCALP TROUBLE FOR YEARS
"258 Harrison St., Elyria, Ohio.—"My case was a scalp trouble. I first noticed small bunches on my scalp which scratched them and in time they got larger, forming a scale or scab with a little pus, and chunks of hair would come out when I would scratch them. It caused me to lose most of my hair. It became thin and dry and lifeless. I was troubled for over ten years with it until it got so bad I was ashamed to go to a barber to get my hair cut. "I tried everything I could get hold of, and ———, but received no cure until I commenced using Cuticura Soap and Ointment when the scale commenced to disappear. The way I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment was to wash my scalp twice a day with warm water and Cuticura Soap and rub on the Cuticura Ointment. I received benefit in a couple of weeks and was cured in two months." (Signed) F. J. Busher, Jan. 23, 1913.

Steve—Yes, of your creditors.

"Number" Blind Man's Buff.
Here is a new version of the old favorite "Blindman's Buff" and it is endorsed by the children as being a good thing. A large circle is formed by the players, with the "blind man" in the center. Each person is given a number, the numbers being in relation to the circle. The candidate stands perfectly still in his position in the center and does not move around. From this place he calls out two numbers and the persons thus designated must change places. In this game the blind man endeavors to catch one of them. Every little while the words "One Hundred" are called by the leader and every one must change places and in this grand mix-up some one must be caught. If not successful, the blind man must continue until he has a victim, who then takes the place in the center. This is a fine outdoor game.

A Game of "Consequences."
A copy of a very interesting little game has been sent me, and it reminds me of what we called "Consequences" when—well, I am not going to say "when I was young," for I am never going to grow old. There are thirty-five sheets or slips of paper in a set, so the pastime is arranged for a large number of players, or the hostess may distribute as many as her party requires, and the rest are good for Fishu Effects.

The draped fish effects in net, or lace, chiffon or mousseline de sole are seen on nearly all of the new dresses.

DAINTY DRESSES FOR HOT WEATHER

The first is a pretty dress with an over-bodice and tunic of figured cotton crepe; finely tucked net forms the under-sleeves and yoke of bodice. A little collar of plain material the same as skirt finishes the neck.

Materials required: 2 1/2 yards 40 inches wide for tunic, 2 1/2 yards 40 inches wide for skirt, 1 yard tucked net 18 inches wide.

The costume at the right shows a delicate dress, which is white spotted with green. The skirt is quite plain, and the tunic is cut so that the border edges the front. The bodice matches this; strips of the border are taken down the outside of arm, and the collar is edged with it; green satin ribbon is taken round the waist, and a small bow at it finishes the neck. Hat of black Pedit straw, trimmed with green ribbon.

Basket Shower.
Did you ever happen to think how many varieties of baskets there are? I never did until my attention was called to the fact by a novel basket shower given for a birthday.

The hostess asked each guest to bring a basket of some description. As the 24 guests were all intimate friends they consulted among themselves, so the selections made did not include duplicates. There was a stunning brocade waste basket; one of the same waste a Dutch market basket made by a Dutch peasant; a clothes basket; three covered baskets to hold a thimble. This was in a round work basket, that had a scalars shawl woven to match. There was a clothes hamper, and a cunning covered basket with a handle, just large enough to hold a bunch for two.

To go with these baskets there was a tea or coffee tray, woven of sweet grass, to use when sitting on the porch, and quilt wall holders in which a tumbler could be inserted to hold wild flowers. The honored guest was perfectly delighted with this shower, for it turned out that baskets was one of her hobbies.
