Old Homestead

SHIRLEY BERGER
 GR. 4-3383
 Just moved into their spanking new barn-roofed Colonial on Steele Rd. are Richard and Shirley Berger. They formerly lived in Bloomfield Hills and Ferndale, and we hope they'll be confirmed Farmingtonians before long.
 At the annual association meeting, officers were elected for the coming year. They are: Joe Larson, president; John Weston, vice-president; "Sis" Campbell, secretary; Charles McMillan, treasurer; Mert Massey, maintenance chairman; Clyde Kennedy, plans and restrictions chairman; Doug Brown and Bob Babington, auditors.
 As the last gala event of the out-going social committee, Yvonne Craig and her assistants convened a potluck dinner at the Wedsons'. The Homestead girls gave their usual stellar performance in the culinary department, and such a smorgasbord was ne'er beheld by mortal eye before. Circulating around the groaning board were: Host and hostess Jim and Betty, Joe and Yvonne Craig, John and Lee Bemis, Dave and Dorothy Kull, Pat and Chick Williamson, Jack and Joan Primeau, Marguerite and Allen Dale, Bob and Beth Doll, Bob and Bernice Lacy, Don and Ellen Greenbury, John and Mary Dumlage, Don and Irene Barth, and Lee and Isabel North.
 LIKEWISE ENJOYING the feast and goofy bridge game to follow were: Bill and Shirley Simmons, Harris and Shirley Berger, Tom and Ginny Tanetzak, Carl and Doris Gaiser, Tom and Carol Cotter, Bob and Gloria Babington, Bob and Marilyn Christie, "Sis" and Ray Campbell, Bill and Mary Cheek, cts, Jack and Betty Garvoda, Wilson and Cookie Griffin, Sue and Dick Latimer, Jean and Russ Nankervis, Jim and Bib Orvis, and the Shulters, Charles and Rachel.
 Rose and Art Gurenwald with their three beautiful daughters spent a delightful two weeks in Florida. Although they have driven south before, Rose particularly loved the Tennessee mountains on this trip. They stopped in Tampa to view the Anheuser Busch botanical gardens, and a small porpoise pool there where Paula and Gail could actually pet the friendly mammals and feed them shrimp. Lynn wasn't quite sure that she wanted to be that friendly.
 Their main port-of-call was Ft. Myers where they had a cottage on the Gulf. Every day except one was obligingly swim-in weather; on that day they took in the porpoise show at the nearby marineland. They also saw the pretty girls at the Spring Gardeners performing on their water slide.

MRS. LEE NORTH Sr. has been visiting the Junior Lee Norths on Quakerstown Lane. Nancy North had her fourteenth birthday and shared a party at her home with Karen Howes who also has no. 14 in March.
 Al and Phyllis Borst had weekend guests from Grand Rapids, Phyllis' sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zwald, with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gobel. The following week, it was mothers' weekend at Central University, and Phyllis drove out to stay at the dorm with Marilyn and meet some of her friends and their mothers.

Andy Scott appeared on the Channel 56 TV show, Adventures in Science. He displayed his cigar-box ukelele, a four-grade project, and described sound waves and how variations in sound are achieved by regulating the tautness of the strings. Watch out for Andy, Batman.

THE PHENEYS entertained an exchange student from Argentina one recent weekend, a Miss Adela Gimenez. Joan obitenth birthday last week. Johnny Primeau spent his tenth birthday with John Christie at the slot-car track, returning home to a spaghetti dinner. To cap the celebration, Mom and Dad took him to Cleveland for the weekend.

Mark Steele had dinner at Grandpa and Grandma's on his twelfth birthday. Other birthdays on the docket were Larry Dale's fifteenth, Craig Nankervis' eighth, and Scott Clark's eighth. Steve Johnson had a new baby brother to help blow out his fourteen candles. Young Brian Austin arrived on the scene about two months ago at seven pounds, eight ounces. Congratulations to Harold and Isabel a bit belatedly.

On Lisa Tofoli's fourth birthday, some of her relatives came to help her celebrate and watch her hunt for her gifts which had been hidden about the house. Lisa thought this was great sport, and is all in favor of birthdays.
 Friends and neighbors are glad to see Mert Massey up and about after a nasty siege of pneumonia.

Original Artistics, Apparel Now Offered By deAncy

What was formerly the deAncy Shop is changing its name to Original Artistics and Apparel and will be holding an Open House from March 14 to March 19, to acquaint customers with a new selection of merchandise. The shop is located at 31183 10 Mile Rd.
 New items will be original creations of talented artists, craftsmen, and seamstresses, handcrafted items such as jewelry, pillows, paintings, silk screen prints, sculpture and decoupage. New apparel articles will include baby clothes, children's and women's clothing of particularly fine workmanship, and clothes for Barbie dolls.
 To answer a frequently asked question, "Who is Mrs. deAncy?" the de is for Dorothy, and the Ancy is for Nancy. Dorothy (Mrs. Richard Carpenter) and Nancy (Mrs. Wesley Mitchell) opened a custom millinery shop four and one-half years ago in a small area at the rear of a local beauty shop. Within two years, they found it necessary to move twice in a search for larger quarters. About one year ago, Dorothy's husband was transferred to Illinois, and Nancy continued the venture with the assistance of Mrs. A. Sovereign, another Dorothy.
 With all of the few additions to their stock, the ladies will continue to offer their custom millinery, bridal headpieces, millinery classes and supplies such as frames, ribbon, material, veiling and maline, feather and flower trims. They are hoping that many Farmington folks will take advantage of their open house to really enjoy the creative new additions they have made to a shop which has become a popular stopping place in this area.
