Rev. P. H. Doster Is First Meth. Lenten Speaker
The last in the series of mid-week Lenten services at First Methodist Church, Farmington, will be held on Wednesday, March 30 at 7:15 p.m. The Reverend Philip H. Doster, of the Detroit Industrial Mission will speak on the theme, "What's Going On?"
Reverend Doster is a graduate of Albion College and Boston University School of Theology. Before coming to the Detroit Industrial Mission, he served at the Fourteenth Avenue Methodist Church in Detroit, and the Hemlock Methodist Church near Saginaw. Reverend Doster invites all members and friends to attend this service and also the pot-luck dinner at 6:30 p.m. prior to the service. For reservations, please call the office, GR. 4-6673, by Tuesday noon.

AS A SURPRISE GESTURE to Rev. and Mrs. William D. Mercer (shown seated) members of their congregation donated a number of books as the nucleus of a library for the youth of Nardin Park Methodist Church for whom they feel that the Mercers have done such a lot of fine work. Shown standing are Mrs. Richard Butler, secretary of the church; E. Howard, owner of Howard's Christian Stores; Mrs. Frank DePodesta who donated in memory of her husband; Mrs. A. F. Grosop who donated in memory of her friend, Mrs. Leo Coffman; Bruce Duke, representing neighborhood business men who donated books; and pictured but part of the group are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bogen and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rice.

Dr. John Adams 44 Voice Philadelphia Chorale To Preach At Orchard Church
"It is" will be the topic of Dr. John Adams' sermon during Orchard Methodist Church's fourth Mid-Week Lenten Service tomorrow evening at 8 p.m.
Dr. Adams holds degrees from Asbury College, Ky., Garrett Biblical Institute and Northwestern University; and did further graduate work at Princeton Theological Seminary and Columbia University. He had served pastorates in Michigan for 23 years before moving to Oshkosh, Wisconsin in 1963.
The Jr. High Chapel Choir will be singing under the direction of Mr. Edward Johns. The organist will be Mr. Mark Atkin.
Nursery and children's classes will be held; and refreshments will be served in Fellowship Hall following the services.
Rev. Frank A. Cozadd invites all members and friends of Orchard Church to participate in these special programs. The church is located between 13 and 14 Mile Roads on Farmington Road.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS
MARIE LONG GR. 4-3116
Mrs. Michael (Ann) Pybus of Independence Green was honored on March 16, at a baby shower given by Mrs. Edna Cope and Mrs. Richard Peters at the Cope residence. This charming young English major is spending a year in the United States while her husband is employed by the Ford Motor Company here. She found the shower a unique experience as the practice is unknown in England. She was thrilled with her many gifts and will be the envy of all her friends when she returns home in June as stretch and no-iron fabrics are almost unknown there.
Mrs. Lillian Barrons of Oakland Avenue returned home recently from an extended visit with her son George, his wife Janet, and their family Silver Springs, Maryland. George is a counselor in a Rockville, Maryland school.
Mrs. Dora Turner of Brookdale entertained six of her former school mates from Plymouth at lunch last week. They all attended a school located at Five Mile and Farmington Roads. Some of the guests were Mrs. Hattie Pangel of Orchard Lake Rd.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Weaver and family have moved from their Grand River home to their new residence on Wellington Drive. Their neighbors will miss them, but are glad that they haven't left the Farmington area.
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Guy of Shilwassee Rd. have returned home from a jet trip to Arizona which combined business with pleasure. They traveled around the state while there, but liked Palm Springs best of all.
Residents of Newell Circle are welcoming Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rooney to the Farmington scene. They have moved here from Provost, Utah.
Paul Weaver who attends Northwestern Michigan College at Traverse City is spending her spring vacation at home with her parents, the Curtis E. Weavers of Wellington Drive.
John Hatfield who is with the National Guard at Fort Gordon, Georgia is expected home at the end of April. John is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hatfield of Marbledale Farm; the Hatfields and their three fine sons own and operate the Springbrook Gardens on Powers Rd.
Mr. and Mrs. Don Boyer and their children have been transferred to this area by Mr. Boyer's company. They are currently residing on Negaunee Rd. in Redford Township.
Walter Kinske of Springfield Dr. is convalescing at home after a stay in Hotspur Hospital. He was there for tests, treatment, and X-rays.
Mrs. Alice Zaklan of Brooklyn, New York has arrived for a visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sarkis Mekjian of Wilmarth Rd.
Mrs. Florence Mathias, formerly of Farmington, is now a resident at the Crestview Club Apartments for retired people in Sylvania, Ohio. Her previous home was at Glen Apartments, and she was active here in the Women's Society for Christian Service at the First Methodist Church. A native of Duluth, Minnesota, she has a son, Richard G. in Stevenson, Michigan who is a chemist for Whirlpool Corporation.
Her new apartment is part of an 80-acre complex close to Toledo where 150 persons reside. It is a pioneer project in the field of housing and health services for retired people.

OBITUARIES
