SOUTHEAST FARMINGTON
Greeting parents and friends as they arrived at the East Junior High School, Friday, March 19, were Mrs. Roy Iles and Mrs. John Matz. They were busy rounding up day camp volunteers, there is a need for helpers at all the day camps, and I hope more will be offering their help. Mrs. Iles is camp director at Arapahoe, and Mrs. Matz is craft consultant. Beginning promptly at 7 p.m. a standing-room only crowd came to a well-prepared and enthusiastically received program given by Southside.

The theme was International Dance Festival, and the dances were from countries which are member nations of Girl Scouts and Girl Guides.

The program opened with a flag ceremony led by Junior Troop 167, as well as the pledge of allegiance, national anthem, and promises of Brownies and Girl Scouts. Mrs. Judy Zahler, neighborhood chairman, welcomed all guests, and she introduced each troop, the leaders stood and named their Mothers' Committee members.

The program opened with a flag ceremony led by Junior Troop 167, as well as the pledge of allegiance, national anthem, and promises of Brownies and Girl Scouts. Mrs. Judy Zahler, neighborhood chairman, welcomed all guests, and she introduced each troop, the leaders stood and named their Mothers' Committee members.

Each of them is to receive as a token of appreciation a Girl Scout decal to put in a car window. Cadettes of Troop 1005 came forward to tell about the World Friendship Fund.

Opening the dances were costumed Brownies of Troop 84. In their Hawaiian skirts and leis, they danced a very good hula.

Junior Troop 98 did the Tarantella from Italy, with bright red head scarves. Mary Henige who had broken a bone in her foot and could not dance told a little of Italy's history.

From the Sarah Fisher Home Junior Troop 6 and Brownie Troop 58 in vests and headpieces did an early French-Canadian Dance.

Brownie Troop 122 complete with wings performed the Wiggle from Switzerland. Brownie Troop 36 complete with kilts and wearing large fairs danced the Gae Gordons from Scotland.

Troop 630 and the girls in a song called P.E.P. Junior Troop 212 then did the Hora from Israel.

Junior Troop 224 did the Rumanian Hora. Brownie Troop 287 presented Denmark's Seven Jumps ending up with heads touching the floor.

Junior Troop 345 did the Seven Steps of Germany. Brownie Troop 303 complete with skirts and headpieces trimmed with large shamrocks danced an Irish jig.

Make New Friends was the next song, and was sung as a round. Junior Troop 421 with headpieces danced the Wedding Dance from Israel.

Junior Troop 430 and Brownie Troop 1039 danced Erzko Kol from Yugoslavia. Linda Krotz explained that the sashes worn by the girls were replicas of the flag.

Troops 588 and 710 danced hearing he held at which all creditors of said estate are required to prove their claims and on or before such hearing file their claims, in writing and under oath, with this Court, and serve a copy upon Harley Spalier, Administrator with Will Annexed, 22726 Farmington, Michigan.

It seems our neighborhood is reaching that point where the population is beginning to turn over. Anyway the real estate is one of our increasingly frequent sales around the subdivisions. For Sale signs were gracing various lawns. So a few people will undoubtedly be losing old neighbors, but gaining new ones, whom we will all be anxious to hear about.

One of our newer families can be found at 2659 Purdue. They are Edwin and Barbara Cosh formerly of Elmira in Detroit. Mr. Cosh is an employee of Norfolk and Western Railroad and Mrs. Cosh spends her time raising their boys. Douglas six months and his older brother Edwin who is four.

The homes on Shawassee will be filling up soon, too, for on the looks of things, they should make that a much more pleasant route to drive along. However, a few of us are going to have to revise our personal speed limits since there will be lots and pets about that weren't here when we first moved in.

WHILE AS WE mentioned, there are a fair number of families moving out, there are an almost equal number entering. Trucks from furniture stores have been fairly swarming by of late. A few weeks ago we noticed some Italian Provincial floorings delivered to its proud possessor, and more recently some very handsome Mediterranean tables were topped up a near-by walk.

Then too, a number of suspiciously wall-paper looking rolls have been yielded up by the U.P.s. men. Go to it girls! Proceed. Florence Beatrice of Ashley took her children and went to Minden City to be with her sister while she recuperated. A feeling most of us are pretty familiar with; postnatal dread. It seems well to spend a week getting acquainted with the new arrival and helping Mom get in gear again.

Back from five weeks in Bermuda is a tanned Tom Kovack. Don't anybody get green now. Tom was not jelling on sands, but fulfilling his service obligations with the 305th Reserve Company of Selfridge Air Force Base.

ON SOUTH STOCKTON, there was a party for young Lee Ann Behrend who turned the oldest of the Patrick's Day. To be sure, a few bit of green was there as the small guests, Kathy, Chris and Annie Kane, Zora, Wendy Johnson, Norma Laskowski, and Lee Ann's sister Beverly, frolicked about and enjoyed their cake and ice cream.

Danny Petchell of Barfield celebrated his birthday with a party the very next day, March 18. For his fourth birthday he was joined by Ted, Dawn and Scott Mohr, Susan and Charles Hoganson and his brother and sister Steven and Carrie for ice cream cones and cupcakes enjoyed in a Bozo the Clown atmosphere.

Actually there have been a number of birthdays recently, celebrated on March 15, by James Patrick Woelker who was three, March 16, by Keith Shewfelt who turned nine, Emily Schoenbach, twenty-one on March 16, Missy Jana Erickson who marked her very first birthday on the 22nd, and Barbara Stewart, also twenty-one on the 21st. Happy Birthdays, one and all!

In the brand-new-baby department this week we find Miss Claudia Marie Jump, born March 14, at St. Joseph Hospital. Her parents, Lawrence and Ellen Jump, raised their new six-pound, nine-ounce daughter home to join a family of two sisters and a brother.

WSU To Give 'Aladdin' Here
Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp, dramatization of the famous tale and Arabian Nights, will be presented by the Wayne State University Children's Theatre on April 23, at 10 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. at East Junior High School, 25000 Middlebelt Road, Farmington. The production here is being sponsored by Farmington Area Council of P.T.A.

The production, designed especially for children's audiences, runs about an hour in length. It includes colorful costumes and scenery, music and dance, and a number of magic effects. The director is T. O. Andrus, who heads the Children's Theatre program at WSU. Costumes are designed by Janice Snodgrass, theatre costumer.

All tickets are 50 cents and will be on sale at all elementary schools in Farmington one week prior to the performance. Pupils will be notified by the schools as to the exact time and dates tickets will be on sale. Farmington parents will be interested to know that most of the proceeds from the play are used for scholarships to graduating seniors from both senior high schools in Farmington. Last year the Farmington P.T.A. Council awarded four scholarships.

Those who were lucky enough to be present at the last P.T.A. meeting on March 21, were treated to an excellent evening of entertainment by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. These long-haired musicians, sporting short hair-cuts, combined talent and wit to delight their captivated audience. Hope they come again next year. As to the business end of the evening, the proposed slate of officers was unanimously accepted and so we congratulate the following: president, Arnold Silver; vice-president, Sanford Bloomberg; mother vice-president, Loretta Henry; teacher vice-president, Patricia Hogg; treasurer, Donald Hickley; neighborhood chairman for SE Farmington, welcomed the overflowing gym audience of kinship, anxious to see their brownie or scout trip the light fantastic and trip some of them! The climax of the evening was the cadet troops' 921 and 1005 presentation of the American show produced by the band mothers of Troop 389 shaped up to be a huge success, thanks in a large part to the hard working mothers in their support of these scouts. those in their hand work by purchasing necessary music and equipment. On the list of contributors, it was neglected to mention that Joe Emerson of the printed tickets and Frank Schooley also printed tickets, handbills and posters. Many thanks from the scout band. THE BRIDGE CLUB's piggy bank was raised to support a frivolous weekend at Port Huron for six of the couples: They can now start saving again for next year's holiday.

Alger Clark left here the 7th of February, with his brother-in-law, Otis Seaman, and drove to Florida where they went along both coasts to visit with old friends. They returned to Wood Creek March 17.

Clair and Theresa McKay returned from their nine-week trip to South America at 2:30 a.m. Monday. When I phoned her about 9:30 she had not had any sleep and was on the verge of an account of so prolonged a trip. You have it to look forward to.

The Doroughs are also back from a long vacation, but Effie was too tired to give me an account of it Monday morning so that, too, you have to look forward to next week.

Dan Insinga drove to San Diego, Calif. last week. He will join the Marines there.

The Franklin Garden Club had its next Thursday, April 7 at 8 p.m. at the home of the Win Himmans, 27310 Wellington, in Franklin. Our speaker will be Mrs. Helen Jensen and her subject is "The Worm and I".
