ONCE-A-YEAR SALE! All "TRU-CRAFT" fabrics are reduced 20% for 10 days only... and we will make your drapes with NO CHARGE-FOR-LABOR!

When you select custom drapes of HOMEMAKER SHOPS you carry out your decorating themes exactly. Because you select the color, fabric and pattern that best fits your room and budget.

You'll find professional perfection in every detail... precise pleating, wide hems, heavy-weight linings, weighted corners. Absolutely NO CHARGE FOR LABOR, all you pay for are the trimmings and fabric used. And your custom orders are put up in smart pleat fold decorator folds. Fabrics are on display in drapes as they look at home.

HERE'S HOW TO MEASURE:
 For WIDTHS: Measure width of window including casing. For wider drapes measure complete area you desire draped.
 For LENGTH: Measure from top of casing (or rod) to bottom of casing for full length or to bottom of casing for draped.

Lampola-Maki Truth Told

Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Lampola of 14396 Inkster Rd., Detroit (formerly of Farmington) announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jean to Pvt. James Karl Maki, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Maki of 21177 Flanders, Farmington. Barbara is a senior at Thurston High School.

James is a 1964 graduate of Farmington High School, and at present is serving with the U. S. Armed Forces, stationed at Fort Gordon, Ga.

Wedding plans will be announced at a later date.

ALL IS NOT CHAMPAGNE, noise makers, dancing and glee on the Eve of the New Year. These four Plymouth residents reported for duty in the Children's Building the night of Dec. 31 at the Maybury Sanatorium. They found it a holiday when they were able to give of themselves the love that is so needed in the care of the youngsters. (From left) Mrs. Dolis Foster, Mrs. Joan Gladstone, Mrs. Marie Frisbie, and Mrs. Iva Creech.

Van Vlecks Host Holiday Breakfast After Elks Party

Following the New Years Eve party at Elks Lodge 1780, Plymouth, Ruth Marsh and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Vleck, co-hosted a breakfast at the Van Vleck home on Schoolcraft Rd. in Plymouth.

Partaking of a buffet breakfast of bacon, sausage, and eggs, were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dethloff, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rustling Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reginski (executed ruler of Elks Lodge 1780), Mrs. Karen Sheffer, Miss Holly Berry, Ron Dethloff, Peter Trudell, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cowling.
