Name Nash Area Chief B&O-C&O

Buford G. Nash has been named general manager-Northern Region of the affiliated Chesapeake and Ohio and Baltimore and Ohio Railroads with headquarters in Detroit. Paul E. Brammer was named assistant general manager-Northern Region.

Nash has been Regional Manager for the Chesapeake and Ohio. The changes were effective the first of the year and are part of the consolidation announced for the combined operating departments of the two railroads. In all, 31 officers in the operating department are affected by the consolidation of the present three operating regions on each railroad into four joint regions.

Detroit becomes headquarters of the Northern Region, for both railroads with other headquarters located at Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Richmond.

At the same time, Kenneth T. Reed becomes assistant vice president-operations administration, Eric T. Rucker becomes assistant vice president-operations with jurisdiction over operations and transportation and W. K. Weaver, Jr. becomes general manager-Southern Region at Richmond.

Rucker and Weaver both served as Regional Manager at Detroit. Reed, Nash and Brammer all served as superintendents at various times at Grand Rapids, while Rucker and Weaver were formerly Regional Managers at Detroit.

Ford Makes 3,500 Rebates On New Model

More than 3,500 excise tax rebate checks will be sent to purchasers of Ford Roadster and station wagon versions of the new Ford Bronco, M. S. McLaughlin, assistant general manager of Ford Division of Ford Motor Company, announced Monday.

The U. S. Treasury Department's Internal Revenue Service recently classified Bronco Roadster and Station Wagon models as passenger cars for Federal Excise tax purposes. Ford's new four-wheel-drive vehicle also is available as a sports utility pickup truck, on which the 10 per cent excise tax rate will continue to be applied.

McLaughlin said mailing of the checks is expected to begin in February. All customers who purchased Bronco Roadster and Station Wagon models through December 31 will be eligible for rebates based on a three-per-cent tax reduction.

Lincoln, Mercury Sales At New Peak

Lincoln-Mercury sales during December 11-20 were the highest in history for the period.

According to preliminary reports, division deliveries for the second December period were 8,863, compared to the previous record of 9,529 set in 1964.

Lincoln Continental sales reached a high for the eighth consecutive period since introduction of the 1966 model. Dealers delivered 2,163 of the luxury cars, up 44 per cent from the 1,503 sold a year ago. The daily rate of 220 topped the previous period mark of 201 set in 1948.

For the first 20 days of the month, Mercury sales were 8,902 compared to 8,783 a year ago, and Comet sales for December 1-20 were 7,882, up from the 6,977 sold in the comparable 1964 period. Since January 1 Lincoln-Mercury sales have totaled 383,821 compared to 342,124 for the same period a year ago.
