PTA NEWS

GRANDVIEW
Grandview PTA will meet Monday, Jan. 10 at 8 p.m. in the Multi-purpose Room of the school.

Mr. Hoffman, of the North-western Child Guidance Clinic, will speak on "What is Normal in Children" pointing out that many things we consider abnormal behavior may actually be quite normal. He will also touch on danger signals in child behavior that may warn us that help is needed before the child reaches his teens.

ROOSEVELT
The next general meeting of the Roosevelt PTA will be held on Thursday, Jan. 13 at 8 p.m. At this meeting the school will be Victor Dodge of Schoolcraft College. Dodge will speak on the subject of "Our Children's Study Habits."

Dodge, currently an instructor in English at Schoolcraft College, holds a Bachelor and Master Degree in English and has taught courses in "How to Study" at Case High School and Highland Park Junior College.

The meeting will be held in the multi-purpose room. Parents of fifth and sixth graders are especially invited to attend with their children.

LONGCARE
An informative program has been planned for Longcare's PTA general meeting to be held Wednesday, Jan. 12, in the school's multi-purpose room at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker is Richard W. LaForge, Director of Youth Guidance of the Greater Farmington area. La Forge has worked directly with the young children and teenagers in the Farmington area and is not only concerned but well-versed with young people's troubles and problems. LaForge has a background working with disturbed people and their problems.

The Youth Guidance program encompasses a large field, working with children from all types of homes in Farmington. Through its referral program any child who needs any type of special help is directed to the proper sources of help.

The Casework Committee reviews all cases with the police, teachers, and parents. The primary purpose of the Youth Guidance is to prevent the children from going too far. Youth Guidance is governed by the School Board, Township Board, and Judge.

Reminder: Don't forget the March 2 general meeting. Another interesting and extremely important topic will be discussed by Dr. Donald F. Schroeder—Sex Education and Your Child.
