NOW THAT A NEW YEAR has begun, we will try our hand at a few peerless predictions. Weatherwise for the next week, it tends to be changeable and unsettled with storms along the Great Lakes region.

FOR THOSE WHO WERE born in January, you are under the sign of Capricorn. You are economical, careful, secretive, slow, cold and pessimistic. You are hard workers, dutiful, sincere and usually succeed in business. Your ruling planet is Saturn. Lucky day—Wednesday, unlucky day—Saturday. Most successful in March and November.

SENIOR CITIZENS CLUB will meet Friday evening at First Methodist Church in Farmington. Election of officers will be on the agenda. Refreshments will be served.

FARMINGTON COUNTRY CLUB will hold their first annual International Bowling Tournament Feb. 26. It will be a mixed foursome team affair at the club's annual event only to District Club Members. The match will be held at the Bel-Air Lanes. A dinner dance will follow in the evening at which time prizes will be awarded. Call GR 4-8000 to register. Registrations are closed Jan. 31.

CARICATURES LINED the walls of the Don Martin home when guests arrived for a family reunion, there were many guests who had not seen each other for a long time. Don, who has a flair for art work, did a caricature of each guest, mounted it on the wall, and then tried to identify themselves. It proved a real ice-breaker, socially. Party guests then had their pictures to take home and keep for a souvenir.

PIONEER GOLDEN AGERS will meet on Wednesday noon at St. Alexander's Parish Hall. There will be a business meeting. Mrs. Mabel Burgess is the new president. Two new members, Mrs. Emma Judge, and Mrs. Vina Smith, have joined the group. Don't forget to bring your own sandwich for the luncheon.

THE FRYER FAMILY on Barlow, who had such a wonderful family reunion last holiday with all the men in service returning home, had a different kind of time this year. Son George is in Viet Nam. He wrote home that the packages from Michigan were outstanding and once more proved the old cliché of a small world. George's package was from a Livonia family. He wrote and thanked them, then they called his mother, had a wonderful visit. Best wishes for a speedy recovery to son Ralph who is in the hospital at Kalamazoo. We should never, never forget what each and every one of us owe our valiant fighting men!

Waldron To Speak to Ladies

State Representative Robert E. Waldron, of Grosse Pointe, will be the speaker at the annual meeting of the Oakland County Council of Republican Women's Club, Thursday, Jan. 27, at Devon Gables.

Waldron, who served as Majority Floor Leader in the 1964 session of the Legislature, is presently Minority Leader, the top GOP House position. He was elected to the House of Representatives in 1964 and to each succeeding session of the Legislature. Besides his duties as an elected public official, he has been active on all levels of Republican Party activity. Currently he serves as Wayne County Republican Chairman and as a Precinct Delegate in the 14th Congressional District.

Mrs. Samuel Vetrano, of Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Paul Robertson of Franklin are co-chairmen of the luncheon meeting, at which Michigan's First Lady, Mrs. Lenore Romney, and Republican State Chairman Mrs. Ely Peterson will be honored guests.

The election of officers for the Oakland County Council will be followed by the installation, by Oakland County Chairman Dale A. Feet, of the officers of the three Republican Women's Clubs in the County.

The committee planning the luncheon includes Mrs. Barney Kuhnlein, 474-4783, of Berkley. Mrs. Isabel Haynes of Farmington and Mrs. John Williams of Berkley.

North-south winners were Dr. and Mrs. Carl Boldt. Other winners included: Mrs. Leon Haskin and Dr. Erich Nasti; Ernest Goy and Dr. Charles Patrick; Mr. and Mrs. David Buskirk; Mrs. Thomas Hollis and Mrs. Eleanor Haack; and Mrs. Earl Heber and Mrs. Don Bowers.

Winners Jan. 2 were: north-south, Mr. and Mrs. Canady; east-west, Mrs. Clarence Johnson and Mrs. James Kelley. Other winners were: Claude Bennett and Mrs. Sally Simmons; Mr. and Mrs. Don Stephens; Mr. and Mrs. Burpee; Heck; and Mrs. Robert Lockwood and Mrs. Thomas Hollis.

The LaPaloma Club has games Fridays at 8 p.m., and Sundays at 8 p.m. For further information call MA 6-6423.

Modern China Is Topic at Farmington Lecture

Dr. Milton Coveny will speak on "Revolution in Modern China" at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Jan. 19, at the North Farmington High School (32900 W. 13 Mile Rd.).

This lecture, open to the public without charge, is sponsored by the Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women.

Dr. Coveny, associate professor of History at Wayne State University, has long been interested in Oriental History, an interest culminating in his latest book, "Oriental Traditions."

He holds degrees of B.A. and M.A. from Wayne State University and Ph.D. from the University of Michigan. A member of the American Historical Association and Phi Beta Kappa, he is a popular speaker throughout the state.

Mrs. Edge Cope, president of the Farmington Branch, will welcome the audience and Mrs. Thomas Chabik, vice president, will introduce the speaker. Following Dr. Coveny's talk, a coffee hour will be held.

The Hospitality Committee for this meeting will consist of Mrs. Clayton Turmons, chairman; Louella Arnold, Mrs. Wendell Brown, Mrs. Don B. Bates, Mrs. Ernest Hickman, Mrs. William G. Johnson, Mrs. Kenneth Lachmann, and Mrs. Donald McCracken.

Guests for the evening will be the Kiwanis Club of Redford, sponsors of the Kendallwood group. Charles Curry, of the Redford Club, will install Kull and other officers who include: Harold Larson, vice-president; Dr. Paul Parente, secretary and Melvin Todd, treasurer.

Following the installation, Curry will present a program, "Glimpses of Europe."

Kull, an accountant with Michigan Bell Telephone Company, lives with his wife Barbara and their two children, Suzanne and Lisa, at 32005 Nottingham, Farmington Township.

Announcing plans for the coming year, Kull stated that the club would once more sponsor youth to both Wolverine Boys' State and Wolverine Girls' State. In addition, the club will again collect trading stamps and with these, acquire toys for distribution to less fortunate children in the community at Christmas time.
