Farmington

TEN MILE
The new math comes up for discussion at the meeting of the Ten Mile PTA at 8 p.m. on Monday, Jan. 17.
Dr. Ann Hungerford, University of Michigan graduate who did math teaching research with Ten Mile pupils last year will present the new concepts for the parents. She will show films on the subject, "Discussion of Arithmetic 4 plus 4 equals 12," and demonstrate math teaching with a class of fifth graders.
The PTA's annual Pancake supper is scheduled for Feb. 14 and plans will be announced at the business meeting preceding the math discussion.

FLANDERS
On Tuesday, Jan. 18 at 8 p.m., the Flanders School PTA, in Farmington Meadows, will present the program, Farmington School Board, Function and Future Plans, in the school gym.
Dr. Van Ameyde, of the Farmington School Board, will be the guest speaker.

WARD EAGLE
Parents of Ward Eagle School children are fortunate to be able to see the new in demand color film "Col. White's Walk in Space," Charles McPhee, who obtained this film will present it to the students during the day and parents, Monday, Jan. 17 at 8 p.m.

MIDDLEBELT ELEMENTARY
Middlebelt Elementary School PTA will have a meeting of great interest to all parents, Tuesday, Jan. 18 beginning at 8 p.m.

Dr. Edwin Blumberg and Rev. Richard Markham will discuss "What's New in Sex Education." Dr. Blumberg is a family physician in private medical practice in Farmington. Both he and Rev. Markham reside in Farmington.
In addition, Tuesday's meeting is also open house with all classrooms open. All teachers will be present to speak with the parents.

Clarenceville

CLARENCEVILLE
January meeting of P.T.A. will be unusual because students as well as parents and teachers will be invited. The meeting will be held Tuesday, Jan. 18, and a film of interest to teenagers will be shown. All CHS students are welcome.
The regular meeting of the Livonia Branch Women's National Farm and Garden Association will be held Jan. 18 at St. Andrew's Church, 16280 Hubbard Road at 1 p.m.
The speaker will be Frank Brown, Director of Horticulture for the Detroit Garden Center, who will talk on "Succession of Bloom in the Garden."
Brown was for 32 years supervisor of the Horticultural Building at Belle Isle and laid out the formal and Dahlia gardens on Belle Isle.
Hostesses for the tea preceding the meeting are Mrs. Herbert Wingardner, Mrs. Joseph

Discover the Great Indoors
No doubt about it, the great outdoors is big and grand and wonderful. But when it comes to pictures of family and friends (instead of mountains and lakes), your own home is the greatest place in the world to take them.
So, discover the great indoors! Birthdays, anniversaries, friendly get-togethers, the kids and their pets, family projects... there's no end to the great picture-taking opportunities in your home.
And now that Kodak has made it so downright easy to take indoor pictures, it's a shame to let them get away from you. Flashcube photography is the answer. All you do is drop a KODAK PAK Cartridge into a new of take four flash pictures without changing bulbs. After each shot, the flashcube rotates automatically as the film advances. You're always set for the next picture opportunity.
If you want really great indoor pictures this winter — color or black-and-white snaps or color slides — come in and see the new KODAK INSTANTANEOUS. We have complete outfits, including camera, film, batteries, and flashcube, from as little as $17.95. Drop in soon, and start discovering how great the indoors can be.

MR. AND MRS. DALE C. GOOD

Partridge-Good Plight Troth

Marilyn M. Partridge, became the bride of Dale C. Good on Dec. 18, at an 11 a.m. ceremony in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Livonia. The Rev. J. P. Coulton performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Partridge, 40433 Pine, Plymouth.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Emma Good, 15404 Forrest, Detroit and the late Professor A. C. Good.

The bride's wedding gown was empire style with lace top and silk tulle skirt with a panel train. The sleeves were wrist-length and the bodice had a scoop neckline. The beaded dress was composed of three flowers. She carried a cascade of white butterfly nosegays.

Candida Partridge was the matron of honor. She wore an empire style gown of green on green crepe. A green bow was in her hair. She carried a crescent bouquet of festive red carnations and English holly.

Ruthann Buschark was the bridesmaid. She wore a similar empire style gown of green on beige crepe. She wore a similar headpiece and carried a bouquet similar to the matron of honor.

Kathy Nazars was the flower girl and carried a miniature bouquet. Ring bearer was Benny Partridge. Clay Good of St. Charles, Mo., was best man. Arvin Good, St. Charles, Mo., and Howard Partridge acted as the groomsmen.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.
The bride's mother wore turquoise crepe and a white carnation corsage.
The groom's mother wore a green crepe dress.
The wedding reception was held at the Kenwood Lounge where over 75 guests attended.
The bride wore a blue brocade going away outfit.
Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Washington, D.C., the newlyweds will make their future home in Plymouth.

The bride graduated from Bentley High in 1968 and the groom graduated from Cooley High in '65, and attended Wayne State University.
