MR. AND MRS. DAVID KELBERT
Ann Richards. Wed In Evening Ceremony

Anne Christine Richards became the bride of David Kelbert, in a 4 p.m. ceremony at Parkway Heights Methodist Church.
The bride is the daughter of Mrs. William Dumas, 18964 Deering, Livonia, and Arthur Richards, 30917 Dorais, Livonia. David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kelbert, 21105 Hugo, Farmington.
Rev. John Baker performed the ceremony.
Wearing a white, floor length gown of layered lace, the bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage.
Carol Kelitis (step-sister of the bride) was her maid of honor.
Barbara Fultz, Linda Acar, and Yvonne Jaber were bridesmaids. Sherry Weathers was junior bridesmaid.
All the attendants were groomed alike in emerald green, pink, floor length dresses. They carried bouquets of pink carnations and sweetheart roses.
Daniel Kelbert (brother of groom) was best man.
Joseph Richards (brother of the bride) Jack Hughes and Roddie Steele seated the guests.
Malina Jaber, flower girl, wore a blue organza floor length dress and carried a basket of roses.
Following the ceremony, a reception took place at the V.F.W. Hall in Farmington.
The newlyweds will take a nine day trip to Niagara Falls and Tennessee.
Both Anne and David Kelbert graduated from Clarensville High School in Farmington. Anne in 1964 and David in 1962.
