Socially Speaking

by Kathy Ziska GR 4-7261

Oh, the woes of a modern housewife with all the convenience "do it yourself" kits. "It's-it-yourself kit," so, be a little different! WHAT CHOICE DO YOU HAVE? With a Yul Brenner head (shaved) there's always the cold to consider and on me it might look worse than the charcoal grey hair. Next week's episode may reveal whether there's a chance of getting my golden locks back to normal or the charcoal grey is here to stay—not by choice.

We wish to extend a note of cheer to Lee Helander who is on the mend after major surgery at St. Mary's Hospital. Also to Lynn Bulman, daughter of Grace and Fred Bulman. Lynn will be sporting casts on both legs after having corrective surgery performed at Oakwood Hospital. Ellen Hatfield, the florist of Springbrook Florist and resident of Farmington is also mending after surgery at Providence.

Young ladies that enjoyed a skating party, sledding and roasting marshmallows at Gerald and Barbara Hively's were Marilyn Chapman, Janice Saddington, Pam Duke, Kim Kramer, Kay Douglas, Laura and Suzie McCallum, Shelly and the Hively Brood, Carol and Gerald, Jr.

Many of you will recall the Hively family as the owners of the Horse Snipper, who decided last fall to do some social climbing and wandered off onto the greens of the Farmington Golf Course. Many a golfer swore off hard liquor that afternoon. Seeing pink elephants was one thing but this was a horse of a different color!

MARVEL STEIGER, Gloria Gies, Kay Goble and Wanda Guzik are all enthused on starting their Spring wardrobe after attending the Annual Fashion Show Tea Card Party, sponsored by the Detroit Garden Center and held at the J.L. Hudson Co. Kay has already purchased the gloves she will build her Spring wardrobe around.

Sylvia Braunstein spent an enjoyable week attending her niece's wedding in Boston, Mass.

WEEK-END GUESTS from Mt. Prospect, Ill., Bill and Kay Goble were Bill's brother and family, John and Carol Goble and children, Scott, Tom and Sue. Kay decided this would be the time to

On Monday the police report was still incomplete due to injuries Fawcett had sustained and was not able to talk to officers Fawcett was taken to Botsford Hospital.

Wayne County: "Sooner or later Oakland County communities will have to do something like this," he said, "shouldn't we wait and go into it with our own people so to speak?"

Dinan said that Livonia was Farmington's closest neighbor and that with 100,000 population an incinerator could be operated more effectively in Livonia than in any other near-by community.
