Ladywood

By Pat Giacoboni

Tuberculin tests were administered to Ladywood High freshmen on Feb. 7. Wayne County Board of Health sponsored the project with the assistance of the Future Nurses Club, moderated by sister Mary Rose, Biology instructor.

The Quill and Scroll ceremony for journalists took place on Feb. 7. James Stower, was the guest speaker. Stower took the audience on an imaginary tour of a news plant.

The Candlelight ceremony was followed by initiation in which 24 Press Club members were received into the honorary society.

For acceptance a student must be of senior or junior level, must be in good scholastic standing, must have done superior work in writing, editing, or in business management and must be recommended by the club advisor.

Shella O'Brien was announced as editor in-chief for the 1966-67 school year. Janet Kobb, Sue Mendenhall, Marianne LaButt and Mary Resnik were announced as page editors.

Mrs. Becker, representative from ALSAC, visited Ladywood on Feb. 9 to give the girls and idea of the organization and its cause. A movie about ALSAC was shown to the girls. Danny Thomas was the narrator in the film.

FORMER PRINCIPAL Arnold E. Pykas, left, stands beside a statue dedicated in his honor as the first principal of Vandenberg School in Redford Township where he served from 1956 to 1965. He now serves as principal of Gallimore School in Plymouth Township. On the right is Jack Gardner, president of the Vandenberg P-TA which donated the sculpture.

Garden City West

By Karen Siebodal

As you walk down the halls at Garden City West High this week, you cannot see the walls for so many posters. There were some saying "Go Tigers" and "Beat Em Tigers!" There were also newspaper and yearbook posters, school key posters, and movie posters.

WSHS Band Boosters are bringing the movie "The Cardinal" to West on Saturday, (Feb. 19), at 8:30 p.m. in the cafeteria.

The Band has been invited to take part in the Battle of Bands at Crestwood on March 4.

College Prep English classes will attend the play "All's Well That Ends Well" at the Wayne State University on March 5.

School Council has had its constitution ratified by the students. It was formed by the school council members and put to a school vote.

School keys and necklaces are being sold by the Junior Class. Anyone interested in purchasing a stargold finished key, must do so before Feb. 20.

Yearbooks will be on sale in the bookstore beginning on Monday (Feb. 21) and will continue for the next two weeks. The prices are $2.50 and an extra cost of 25 cents will be charged if you wish to purchase a protective plastic covering.

Scheduled through the School Council for this week have been a Senior A Go Go for March 18 and Shamrock Shrivaree for the Photo Club on March 11.

On March 4-6, West will sponsor the first Garden City School System Science Fair. The first major division will concern biology, chemistry, earth sciences, mathematics and physics. The second division for the Junior Highs will cover biological and physical sciences.

The third division is from the elementary schools on primary and intermediate subjects.

Plymouth High

By Margaret Rodlaff

Plymouth High School seniors, Julie Kink, Chuck Gallett, Ralph Held, Mary Fink, Tom Webber, and Rick Wager entered competition for the Alumni Distinguished Scholarship at Michigan State University which provides financial help of $1,500 per year.

At the exams, the students met with other contestants to discuss their interests, visit the Library, Museum and Art Center.

Tomoyoshi Genkawa, representative from Kyoto, Japan, spent seven days in Plymouth learning about the English language and its application and getting a taste of American life.

Each year the State Department sends out observers from 60 countries to spend six months in the United States to observe the culture and language. Genkawa traveled to the United States on a Fulbright Scholarship.

While in Plymouth, Genkawa visited geography and history classes explaining details of Japan.

Every PHS student will soon be the proud owner of a 1966-67 student Directory. Under the direction of senior representative Cindy Erdelyi, the project will be in full swing within the next week.

The directory will contain the names, addresses and phone numbers of this year's freshman, sophomores and junior classes.

The Dress Code Committee, composed of eight faculty members and three students has recommended the adoption of the following code for boys school attire:

1. Boy's shirts must be worn tucked inside trousers unless the shirt is tailored square cut at the bottom and intended for outside wear.
2. Sweatshirts are not to be worn in school.
3. If a sweater is worn, it must be worn over a sport or dress shirt or dicky.
4. Socks must be worn with all types of shoes.

At present the committee is studying the revision of the dress policy in the student handbook which will include both school and dance dress codes.

Radio News Commentary and Multiple reading are the new events to be included in this year's Forensics competition.

The competition now includes Serious Interpretive Reading, Humorous Interpretive Reading, Original Oratory, Extemporaneous Speaking and for sophomores only, Declamation.

Any student interested in this competition see Mrs. Watrous for eligibility.
