Malcom McFarlanes Celebrate Their 50th Wedding Anniversary

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Malcom McFarlane, a prominent Garden City family, was celebrated at the Dearborn Elks Club.

The gold and green decor had many "golden" flower arrangements, and felt ice sculpture which held the punch bowl had golden flowers imbedded in its depths.

Until his retirement a few years ago, Malcom McFarlane had been in partnership in the firm of McFarlane Brothers

Realtors established in Garden City in 1924. They are the parents of a daughter, and have a grandson, a granddaughter and a great-grandson.

The party gave the many friends and relatives of the popular couple an opportunity to present them with gifts and tokens of esteem. Guests and well-wishers came from Calgary, Alberta, Montreal, Quebec, Toronto, London, Ontario, St. Thomas, Fort Erie, Glencoe and Windsor, Ont., Phoenix, Ariz., Detroit and Dearborn.

Plymouth Club Hears 'Fashions For Travel'

What to take? Where to go? How to Pack? These are some of the questions that will be answered by Emily Kay Murphy on Feb. 28 at the 12:30 p.m. luncheon at the Elks Club on Ann Arbor Rd.

She will display a designers wardrobe of interchanging pieces sufficient for a vacation. Emily Kay is known for her self impression course at Crowley's Livonia Mall, her affiliations with Willoway Play House and her promotional work.

Tickets are available by calling Mrs. Edward Sawusch at 433-4346 or Mrs. Ames Jabara at 433-0469. The chairman, Mrs. Daudeman, will be assisted by Mrs. Max Nicol, Mrs. Gene Overholt, Mrs. Ethel Burmeister, Mrs. Edna MacDougall, Mrs. Gordon Hartford, Mrs. Russell Ash and Mrs. Charles Derr and Mrs. Robert Gotshall.
