These students will again try out, this time displaying their acting ability, and the leads will be announced soon.

Members of the Spanish Club recently attended a dinner at the Noble Nook.
The senior Sleigh Ride Party will be held Feb. 26. The scene will be Centaur Stables, located on Drake Road near Maple. A dance, complete with a band and refreshments, will be held afterwards. In case there is no snow, a hayride will be planned instead.
A Dime Dance, sponsored by the Junior Class, will follow Friday night's basketball game with Oak Park.
Juniors are receiving the results of their Differential Aptitude Tests. These tests help students prepare for post-graduation work or schooling.

see your guidance counselor for application. Information concerning General Motors Scholarship is available at the guidance office.
The policy on dropping classes has been changed to read as follows: students desiring to drop a subject this applies to students who continue to be enrolled in Plymouth High School. A. If the student drops a subject before the end of the eighth week of a semester, no mark is recorded. B. If a student drops the subject any time after the beginning of the ninth week of a semester, an E is recorded as a final mark for that subject. C. The same rule holds if a teacher requests that a student drop a particular subject. This policy will be effective this current semester.

Be sure to order your literary magazine, Pegasus, tomorrow. Contact your English teacher or Miss McDonald or any member of the staff. Price: 60 cents.
