

FRANK SINATRA, Sammy Davis, Jr. and Dean Martin costar with Ringo Crosby in the musical comedy "Robin and the Seven Hoods" now showing at the Dearborn Drive-In Theatre. Also showing is the Walt Disney film "That Darn Cat."

WSU Student Writes Play

Brian Dates, the author of the original musical "Shangri-La," is a graduate of Farmington High School.

The musical will be presented by his alma mater FHS April 29 and 30 at the Farmington Junior High School auditorium. The director is Lee S. Frel, director of dramatics at the high school. William Feuchl, director of music for the show, is currently an arranger for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Dates, a Wayne State University student, has a long musical background. He appeared as the minstrel in last year's production of "Once Upon A Mattress."

Win a New Outfit

Some lucky lady will receive a complete Easter outfit plus dinner for two within the next few weeks. All that is necessary is to register at the Terrace Theatre in Livonia.

The dinner for two is being awarded through the courtesy of Taylor's Towne House, which is also making available a buffet dinner for two as the second prize.

Dewline

By JOHN DEW

From Beatles to Bond to Bats... so goes the craze. Latest and hottest item in the business today is the phenomenal growth and appeal of Batman. ABC-TV's second-season headliner.

The merchandising volume from "Batman" products now exceeds both the flurry created by the Beatles and last month's James Bond—007 fad. Radio stations around the country have jumped on the Batman bandwagon. In Detroit, they call themselves "Bat-radio" and have "Batman" driving around the city in a "Batcar" phoning in reports on the "Bat-phone."

All of which is likely to drive many bats. Some indication of the immense popularity is evidenced by the fact that within three days after announcing a free "Batman club kit" WXYZ received over 171,000 requests for same.

If you're so inclined, you may wish to rent a Batman or Robin costume from the store of the shops around town—they're going at a rate of $15 per day. And as is inevitable, Adam West, star of the TV series, has been signed by 20th Century records to record a song, "Miranda."

Some local people in radio and the music business have moved up in the past few weeks. John Campbell replacing John Pival as head of WKZY-TV, Lee Alvin promoted to Program Director and Bruce Still moving

Mary's Story Is Film Line

Katharine Hepburn and Fredric March star in "Mary of Scotland" in the next Famous Early Movies Series program at Greenfield Village on Sunday, March 13. Two showings are scheduled in the Henry Ford Museum theater, at 2 and 4 p.m.

- RKO Radio Pictures produced this thrilling drama in 1936. Elaborately produced, it is the story of the Queen of Scots, who defies Queen Elizabeth and is promptly sentenced to be beheaded. Included in the classic film library, it is rated as an excellent historical drama.
- The Famous Early Movies Series at Greenfield Village is presented in the Henry Ford Museum theater each Sunday afternoon through mid-April. The movies are included in the regular admission charge to the Museum.
- 1) 3th Nervous Breakdown—Bob Hope
 - 2) Young Man—Beulah

Roles Available

The Nankin Mills Players will present the adult comedy "Goodbye Charlie" May 29 and rehearsals are scheduled to begin March 21.

Director Jean Daniels (722-4024) and assistant director Bob Kraft (291-6269) are interested in auditioning anyone interested in participating in the cast of three women and four men.

Calling All Hands

Singers, dancers and musicians are needed for the My Musical production of the Plymouth Theatre Guild. The show will be presented May 12, 13, 14 and 15 at the Plymouth Art Theatre. Auditions will be conducted March 10 and 11 at 8 p.m. in the Plymouth High School Auditorium. Kingley Page will direct the production. For further information contact Jerry French at 464-1599.

PINOCCHIO is currently touring the area courtesy of the Junior Guild of Redford-Livonia. The production will be at Franklin High School in Livonia March 12 for three performances at 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. On March 19 it will visit Thurston High School in Redford Township with performances scheduled for 9 a.m., 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. From left, are Keith Mueller as Pinocchio; Cheryl Stewart, Sandwich Man; and Ron Simmons, Pinocchio.

Oakland U. Singers Present Concert Sunday, March 13

The Oakland Singers will present a concert in Oakland University's Gold Room on Sunday, March 13. Scheduled for 3 p.m., the performance will be open to the public without charge.

Quintet Will Have Pianist

Mary Norris, pianist, will join the Meadow Brook Wind Quintet Friday, March 11, at 8:30 p.m. in the Gold Room of Oakland University.

Lewis Norris will be heard in Ludwig van Beethoven's Quintet in E Flat and Francis Poulenc's Sextette for Piano, Clarinet, Flute, Oboe, Bassoon and Horn, on a program which will include Trois Pieces Breves, by Jacques Ibert; Trio for Flute, Clarinet and Bassoon, by Walter Piston.

The members of the quintet, all first chair men of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, are Albert "Tito" Tito, Tito Mariotti, oboe, Paul Schaller, clarinet, Charles Sirard, bassoon, and Arthur Krehbel, French horn.

The Quintet is one of three chamber groups formed a year ago under the Meadow Brook banner to give new exposure to the very special abilities of Detroit Symphony principals. The program with its challenging offerings of works rarely heard in the area has won national recognition.

Single tickets are available through the Festival Office, Oakland University, 338-7211.

Wayne Players Begin Rehearsals for Comedy

The Wayne Civic Players has started rehearsals this week for "Born Yesterday" under the direction of Bud Ribble. Ribble has contributed to amateur theatre in many capacities and is especially talented in set design and painting technique. Lois Schaffer, well known to theatre groups and newspaper personnel as a publicity gal (so named by our own Wally Roberts) is assistant director. The producer, Rob Roy, is a veteran in all phases of theatre work.

Heading the cast is Ardell Ribble as Billie, the dumb but beautiful blonde. Ardell will be surrounded by Riley Tadlock in the part of Harry Brock, who parlayed a junk yard into a million dollar business.

Dick Walker who has run the gamut on stage from a tough crap shooter to an English butler will strive to awaken both Billie and society as he crusades in the person of Paul Verral, against corrupt politics.

Bob Wagner, who starred as the prosecuting attorney in "The Night of January 16th," will be using his tones as the attorney. Other members of the cast are Gene Murphy as Eddie Brock, Al Boduck as Senator Hedeges, and Rosemary Moorhead as the Senator's wife, Estelene Platt will be Helen, the maid.

"Born Yesterday" will be presented in the John Glenn Lecture Theatre on April 22, 23 and 29, 30. Advance tickets may be obtained by calling 721-0277.

A few small parts are available. Any one interested may call 721-7381.

Name Judges

The Wayne State University Theatre and the department of English have announced a grant of $300 from the Detroit Motion Picture Council for the University's 1966 playwright contest. Awards will be given in three categories: full-length play, one-act play and children's play. Judges for the competition will be Jay Carr of The Detroit News, Louis Cook of the Detroit Free Press, and Frank Gill, advisor to Student Publications at WSU and former critic for The Detroit Times.

Prize-winning plays will be considered for production by the University Theatre, which reserves the option for first production rights for a year. The contest is open to any person enrolled at WSU and time during the two years prior to the contest deadline, April 15, 1966. Rules and application forms are available at the WSU English department.
