If you plan to power rake your lawn, do it before you apply pre-emergence crabgrass killer because the raking will disturb the chemical barrier and result in patches of crabgrass throughout the lawn. Frost is out of the soil and most yards are dry enough to start power raking. Power raking is advisable every 2-3 years, depending on the amount of thatch accumulated.

Siding wood windows are the answer.

These units, which operate like sliding doors, offer a clear expanse of glass for an unobstructed view, and can be opened from either right or left or maximum ventilation.

Available in stock units of ponderosa pine, wood sliders lend themselves reasily to a variety of interesting vindow treatments. They can be installed individually, side by side, or combined with fixed windows. Entire wall sections can be formed by using a series of longer sliding windows and of longer sliding windows and
