

AT LADYWOOD HIGH

Bank Entertains Student Body

By LOUISE GILLIS
Ladywoodians entered the gym last Monday to the loud strains of a 12 man band from Catholic Central.

The boys came to Ladywood to entertain and also to promote the Parent-Teacher Club's millionaire party. From 1:30 p.m. the gym was filled with cheers, speeches, and music as three members of the Parents Club led the pep rally. Robert Fox, Charles Berry, chairman of the affair, and Warren King, president of the Parents Club.

The Parent-Teacher Club had its annual Mother - Daughter Mass and breakfast recently at Madonna's in the Felician Sisters' Chapel.

After Mass the mothers and daughters dined in the Madonna dining room. Rev. Kean Cronin, Ladywood's chaplain gave the invocation. Guest speaker was Mrs. Harold Schachern from the Detroit Archdiocese Council of Catholic Women.

Ladywood's Choral Club received the superior plus rating at Rosary High on March 20. They were competing with 10 Catholic schools in the archdiocese in the annual choral festival.

Sodalists from Ladywood attended a World Sodality Meeting at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral and Detroit Cathedral High School on Sunday, March 27.

Sponsored by the Detroit Federation of Sodalities, it included a Bible study at the Cathedral and a workshop on the Constitution of the Liturgy.

Those girls who entered the Metropolitan Detroit Science Fair and have qualifying projects are: Janet Rosa, Kathy Michaels, Debbie Camilleri, and Kathy Hilton. They can now move their projects to Cobo Hall and compete with other entries from April 2-5.

Five Ladywoodians acted as representatives of the humble country of Rwanda in central Africa at the Model United Nations assembly at the University of Detroit.

The girls' team coached by Anne Klinger, performed in a special show for students on Saturday night. The performance was given again in a night showing for parents.

Clarenceville High gymnasts have been on the move lately. The girls' team coached by Anne Klinger, performed in a special show for students on Saturday night. The performance was given again in a night showing for parents.

Clarenceville played host to the Michigan Amateur gymnastic meet in the new high school gym and was represented by both the girls and boys teams coached by Charles Thompson.

Members of the girls' team are: Carol Bedson, Joann Bedson, Ann Black, Gail Blondel, Linda Bornstein, Marge Brogman, Jean Dennison, Bonnie Di-Biasi, Kathy Harvey, Patti Harsh, Hannah Johnson, Mary Kaipio, Martha Larkin, Sue LaLonde, Maggie McDonald, Margie Neil, Denise Romm, Charlie Rich, Janet Schwartz, Gerri Troutaud and Pam Wright.

The boys team includes: Rick Fredericks, Jim McCannon, Charlie Morse, Tom Stanton, Bob Schuring and Tom Webber.

On Saturday, March 25, Clarenceville joined with Ladywood Franklin and Ladywood High School in a fund raising dance called the Frugile Hop. The dance was sponsored by the Dollars for Scholars Association.

The Clarenceville Forensics Club competed in the District Forensics tournament at Clarkston, Mich. Representing Clarenceville was Warren Berger in extemporaneous speech. Pam Schmidt and Wayne Strang in Humorous Interpretive Reading, and Woodward in Original Oratory.

Clarenceville Dramatic Club was out viewing the competition and picking up a few tips on March 23 when it saw the Henry Ford High School production of Oklahoma, which Clarenceville will present as its spring musical.

Foundation Honors
ANN ARBOR - Michigan wrestling coach Cliff Keen whose mat team finished second in the Big Ten championships was named runner-up in the U. S. Amateur Wrestling Foundation Man of the Year Award. The award was won by Harold Nichols, coach at Iowa State, who wrestled at Michigan for Keen in 1937-38-39.

Vocal Classes Present Annual Spring Concert

By DEBBIE LUSKY

James Hunt and his vocal classes presented their annual Spring Concert at 8 p.m. last night.

Selections sung by the Girls' Glee Club were "Come Let Us Sing A Joyful Song," "Lift Thine Eyes," "With a Song In My Heart," "May Day Carol," "It Might As Well Be Spring," and "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man."

"Be a Beautiful Savior," "Yum Yum Ticky Tu, Tum," "Hosanna Pomegranate," "Anthem for Spring," "Every Night When the Sun Goes Down," "Soon Ah Will Be Done," and "The Telephone Song" were performed by the Advanced Choir.

The Northern Chorale presented "It's a Big, Wide, Wonderful World" and "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing." Accompanists were Laura Kahn, Janet Greene, and Jan Abram.

At the districts forensic contest, held at Waterford Kettering March 21, Randy Harpe captured a first place in declamation and will participate in the regional contest. Third place went to Dave Frank in serious interpretation and to Sue Cox in humorous readings.

Fanny Raleigh was awarded fourth place in declamation. The final selection of material for "Focus," NF's literary magazine, were made by the English V classes on March 22. The Journalism II class will begin printing soon, and "Focus" is scheduled to go on sale in May.

A group of NF students, supervised by Miss Moore, attended a performance by the Shakespeare's "The Tempest" at Hillberry Theater last Wednesday.

On March 25, the French Club presented "Breakfast at Tiffany's" in the
