Missionary Conference, April 20-24

Beginning Wednesday evening, April 20, Bethany Baptist Church, 34541 Five Mile Rd., Livonia, will conduct a missionary conference to run through Sunday, April 24, exclusive of Saturday.

The conference theme is "Preaching the Gospel in Regions Beyond" (2 Cor. 10:16). Personnel developing this theme will be the following missionaries: Rev. L. Shelton Allen, Far Eastern Gospel Crusade, far has served in Japan; Rev. Orval Burkhead, the Evangelical Alliance Mission, on furlough from Brazil.

Services will be held nightly, Wednesday through Friday, at 7:30 p.m., and on Sunday, at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. in the evening meetings. Films, literature, music, and messages will comprise all program. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Worship Through Music

A special concert of sacred music entitled "Worship Through Music" is scheduled to be presented at the Memorial Church of Christ on Thursday, April 14, at 7:30 p.m. The concert will be sung by the Cincinnati Bible Seminary's Concert Choir under the direction of Prof. E. Wayne Berry, who is a noted organist, choirmaster, and head of the Music Department of the Cincinnati Bible Seminary.

This concert is part of an annual spring tour that will take the choir into communities in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Canada, and Ohio. Members of the choir are students at the Cincinnati Bible Seminary who represent a cross section of the country. The concert will feature selections by the entire choir and the Madrigal Singers.

Beta Sigma Phi News

Plymouth Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Ellen Murdock, 1397 Sheridan in Plymouth, Mich., on April 10. The program was presented by Dr. Thomas Klucka, radiologist of Garden City, who showed a film on Civil Defense.

BONNIE SCOTT and Ann Baron model two of the travel outfits that will be shown at the fashion show sponsored by St. Priscilla's Guild of Livonia.

Around The World Mystery Cruise Proves Fun Trip For Arkites Couples Club

The Arkites Couples Club of the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington would like to share their "Around the World Mystery Cruise" from which they recently returned.

Arriving at 1900 hours, the guests, members of the Arkites Couples Club, came aboard the gang plank of the U.S.S. Arkite, where they each received a passport (a name tag) and each of the ladies were ordered through customs, having to declare certain items that they may have in their purse. Each guest was supplied with a life vest and tickets to six countries where they would receive a different course of the meal.

This being a non-conventional cruise, held on the ground of the First Presbyterian Church, the meal was served in a non-conventional order.

In a Swiss chalet set in the Alps, Helen and Edges Coups and Jean and Jim Brash, dressed in traditional lederbosen, served hot connoisseur. Next a trip to the vineyard of Italy, where Italian chefs, Jean and Dick Nelson and Phyl and Jack Dingenman served Italian Salad.

A Paris cafe was cleverly devised by the apache dancers, Betty and Sid Albrecht and Verta and Don Allen. It was furnished with a red and white striped awning and small umbrella tables surrounded by flowers and night scenes of the Eiffel Tower and the Arch of Triumphant.

In a thatched hut of South Africa, where a large eight foot tiki and voodoo masks looked down on the guests, and native drum music completed the background, it was the alibi of shamrocks and leprechauns.

In between each course of the meal, the tourists were ordered back to the ship for lifeboat drills, life preserver drills, relay mopping the deck and a limbo contest. This gave time for resetting the tables and setting the atmosphere of the country.

On the sail home, the guests were treated to an Alex Guinness movie in the ship's lounge. Much credit is due to the chief travel agent, Shirley Ford, who with her talented paint brush, helped the couples create their magic dining rooms.

All this right on the grounds of the First Presbyterian Church in Farmington — how clever!
