DRESSAGE

Do you know what it means? It means the execution by a horse of complex maneuvers in response to perfectly perceptible movements of the rider's hands, legs and weight.

RHETT N. HALL, ESQ.

If you belong to the equestrian group to whom dressage means something, you have been awarded Phi Beta Kappa awards for scholarships in the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society.

CHARLES E. FELNBERG

chairman of the Detroit Association of Phi Beta Kappa, will be present at the 18th annual Honors Convocation at the Ford Auditorium, May 12, at 8 p.m. Thursday, May 12, in Ford Auditorium.

Qualifications for eligibility require that:

Students must have at least a 3.5 composite average of at least 2.8 points (an A minus) in the Detroit Public Schools (and 12th, 11th, and 12th grades).

Students must have taken a college preparatory course, have maintained a good citizenship rating throughout the three years of senior high school.

The students who will be awarded are as follows:

Kathleen Abell, Kathryn Anderson, Barbara Borchardt, Mary Brie, Linda Budd, Mary Diane Bukiowski, Ruth Butler, Karen Cienicki, Nancy Colombo, and Donna Fannelli;

Mary Gerhard, Patricia Hegarty, Mary Konkel, Paul Lasky, Krzysztof, Maureen McCormick, Linda Macunovich, Nadine Mar-

Marie, and such a specialist as many top professional trainers and instructors to whom he has given a great deal of time, both live and on TV.

Both live and on TV, as well as in Rhodesia and India, and following his spring trip to America he will go to Australia for the summer.

THE SPANISH RIDING SCHOOL

Robert N. Hall became most interested in dressage when he attended The Spanish Riding School in Austria. Walt Disney made the school famous in the U.S. with his film "The Flight of the White Stallion," which told the story of the legend of the Spanish Riding School from Vienna. After the war, Mr. Hall was able to attend the School because it had not yet returned to its former splendor and was accepting a few paying students while its chief source of income, that of demonstrations, was the top secret. It was the fact of the fact he had been riding, teaching and training horses for some 25 years. Robert Hall, who had not until he attended this school did he feel he was "riding" a horse instead of just sitting on it, has now returned to Fulmer from Austria; he brought with him his famous Lipizzan stallion named Conquistador which had been ridden by Mrs. Hall with great success in many leading dressage contests, including winning the Homburg Dressage Derby in 1965.

Robert N. Hall's appearance at Centaur Farm is the only one he'll make in or near Michigan. He will give a Dressage Demonstration and Lecture at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, April 29, in the Schoolroom April 30th. Tickets are $3 each. He will also hold a special Dressage Clinic for Juniors from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on April 30th, with tickets priced at $3 each. Tickets are available at Centaur.

Although it was previously understood that a standard "yearbook" could not be printed at Stevenson High, all believed that some type of issue should be published in remembrance of this important first year.

A committee consisting of Mrs. Carlson and Mr. Peterson, and nine students is responsible for the task of organizing this Commemorative Edition. It will be a soft-cover, non-commercial booklet and hopefully will be ready for sale in early May.

It will include pictures of the dedication with Vice President Humphrey, department heads, home rooms, teams, and clubs. Also the issue will contain pictures of participants of the entire school program, such as the orchestra, the band, the choir, and the glee club.

The Dramatics Club will perform in two, one-act plays in the near future: "The Blind" and "Used Car for Sale."

The S.O.S. Club sponsored a "shoe hop" April 22, in the halls around the library. There was a good turnout, and entertainment and refreshments were provided.

12 Delegates Chosen

By MADGE HILDEBRANDT

Twelve Farmington Senior High juniors were selected to attend the delegate session of the American Legion, sponsored by the American Legion. There are two week-long conferences held in the summer, one for boys at Michigan State University and the other for girls at the University of Michigan.

On April 20, forty NF students, headed by Miss Patricia Moore and Bill Bupp, attended a performance of Shaw's "St. Joan" at the Hillberry Classic Theater.

The cafeteria was the scene of the annual Latin Club Banquet last Thursday evening.

Lady of Mercy

Society Taps Students

Twenty-seven students of Our Lady of Mercy High School have been awarded Phi Beta Kappa awards for scholarships in the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society.

Created by a group of 50 students in the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Virginia, in 1876, Phi Beta Kappa became the first secret Greek letter Society in the United States.

For more than 50 years it has been a secret organization for students in the public schools in the 10th, 11th, and 12th grades.

Students must have at least a 3.5 composite average of at least 2.8 points (an A minus) in the Detroit Public Schools (and 12th, 11th, and 12th grades).
