under the philosophy of "Why not do what you want to do? — After all — you can't take it with you!"

What happens in the madcap household on the night that daughter tries to create a good impression entertaining the stuffy parents of her fiancé provides one of the high spots in a comedy called "an evening of tickling fun" by the N.Y. Times critic.

Under the direction of Tony Mattar, the production features Jim Wotring as Grandpa Vanderhof; Shirley Hulet as Penelope; Joseph Mattar as Boris; and Lindy Van as Essie.
