

Manpower Inc. Praises Work of Secretaries

The world's largest temporary help and complete business service, Manpower, Inc., saluted the thousands of women in business and industry in the Tri-County area during National Secretaries' Week.

Jerry Heller, general manager of Manpower — Detroit which serves Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties said the secretary is "the eyes, ears and alter ego of her executive."

In his book "How To Be An Effective Secretary," Elmer L. Winter, president of Manpower-International said, "The executive secretary of 1970 will be more than a Girl Friday; she will be on the way to becoming a part of management itself."

"Never before have good secretaries been higher paid or in greater demand," reveals the author, whose firm is the world's largest supplier of the secretarial talent.

His promise: "If you can make yourself into an effective secretary, you can all but write your ticket. Somewhere in business there is an executive who needs a superior secretary to rely upon, who wants to share with you the responsibilities in his career and the exciting frontiers of industry that he is helping to explore."

Winter saluted the nation's secretaries during National Secretaries' Week, by these words of encouragement: "Of tomorrow's secretary, like tomorrow's executive, will be a far more versatile person than she is now. The title 'secretary' will no longer fit the description."

Chadsey Reunion Set

Residents of the area who attended Chadsey High School are being advised of a reunion to be held at the school on May 20. Anyone interested in attending, may call Helen Kolb, of Livonia, at 425-4603.

DICK PURTAN, popular WKMR radio personality will be at the Livonia Mall, Saturday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. to pick the name of some lucky mother in the area. The mother selected will be named "Livonia Mall Mother of the Year" and receive a $100 Gift Certificate good at any store in the Livonia Mall.

All habits are stepping stones — some lead up, others down.
