High Fliers Are Sought
By SUE DOWELL

Can you jump high in the air with grace and poise? Can you yell loud and clear? Are you peppy? Then why not be smart and try to be Bentley's 1966-67 cheerleading squad. Yes, even girls who are participating in the cheerleading clinic are being watched for their skill.

This year seven cheerleaders will be chosen for the football and basketball season. They can be either Junior or Seniors. And they will be judged on their personality, poise and skill.

The girls who also have to put on a skit using some of their cheerleading abilities. The judges will be chosen from their experience with school activities and cheerleading.

This year's cheerleaders are Linda Korver, Anne Friedrichs, Lynn Huston, Mary Plumley, Kathy Tipping, Karen Thomas, and Charlotte Maynard.

Last week was a busy one for students running for an office for next year's Student Council. After having petitions ok'd students plastered posters all over the halls. On Thursday, May 5, candidates and their campaign managers gave speeches to the Sophomores and Juniors. On Friday the students voted and the results were given shortly after the polls closed.

The officers for next year's Student Council are Frank Edwell, president; Susan Dowell, vice-president; Barbara Marfion, secretary; and Gary Bell, treasurer.

They will take the place of this year's officers who are Brian Lucas, president; Gert Roberts, vice-president; Clodi Tatar, Secretary; and Sandy Fairbanks, treasurer.

Plymouth High Saturday Dance Called 'Affair To Remember'

By MARGARET RUDLAFF
The Plymouth High seniors are going to have "An Affair To Remember" this Saturday, May 14, at the Mayflower Meeting House. Everyone is more than welcomed. Tickets are only $5.00 and can be purchased at the high school during any lunch hour.

A huge CONGRATULATIONS goes out to the Water Wave and Ripple Clubs for a magnificent show. It was well done and most enjoyable. Also a congratulations to senior soloist Kay Zoet who presented an extra fine portrayal of a "bad clown."

It is a must for everyone. The annual Art Exhibit presented by PHS students under the direction of Art teachers Jessie Hudson and Carolyn Sam. The exhibit will be displayed at the Dunning Hough Library from May 9 through May 25.

Any student interested in summer employment should contact Mrs. Eugene Crosby at GL 3-2904 or register at the Plymouth Credit Union.

For the first time in Plymouth's history 18 students competed in the American Association of Teachers of German contest and to the delight of everyone made a very respectable showing.

Mary Fink placed highest among the Plymouth students scoring second in the second year division. Rowena Jones, Madeline Hanson and Anne Wood also placed high in this division.

In the third year division, Burleson placed sixth and Tom Chandler, Lisa Hanson and Dan Robinson scored high. Kay Zoet placed fifth in the fourth year division while Mike Hoepfich scored high. All other Plymouth students were in the top two-thirds of the scoring. The students are all students of Mrs. Brigitte Bauer.

Other Michigan schools that participated were University High, Ann Arbor, Ferndale High, Cass Technical High and many other schools around the state. Congratulations.

First place in the District Forensics Competition was earned by Mary Arnold for her reading, "Ceremony After A Fire Raid" by Dylan Thomas. Congratulations Mary.

Students who have been accepted by Schoolcraft College will be interviewed by a representative on May 1 and 2 and June 1.

Admission director of Oakland University will be here May 10 to talk with juniors about enrollment after graduation.

Miss Elizabeth McDonald, Journalism and English teacher, has been asked by the Pennsylvania State School Press Association to judge high school newspapers for annual awards. This will be Miss McDonald's second experience in judging.

LADYWOOD
Choral Club Sings in City

Dressed in floor-length gold gowns, Ladywood's senior choral club together with the Catholic Central Choral Club and orchestra performed at Henry and Edsel Ford Auditorium on Monday, May 1.

The girls sang a medley of songs including "Maria" from the "Sound of Music," "Praise Ye the Father," and a selection of songs from "Flower Drum Song." The program reached its climax as the combined choruses filled the hall with the music of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

The clothing department displayed its talents in a fashion show for the student body on May 4.

With the theme, Fashion Flung for Summer and Spring, the girls modeled the latest in fashion ranging from beach wear to evening gowns.

The stage was decorated with flowers to express the spirit of spring and prizes were awarded.

"Are Maria" echoed throughout the groto on the Felician Sisters' grounds as the long file of Ladywoodians honored Our Lady through song.
