Northville Town Hall Seeks Cash Award Applications

Applications for cash awards to be presented by the Northville Town Hall series are being received. Mrs. H. E. Wagenschutz, awards committee chairman, announced this week.

In the Plymouth, Farmington, Livonia or Northville areas through the Board of Awards, an advisory group consisting of representatives of each community.

The Northville Town Hall Board has said, "Since our members are drawn from Plymouth, Farmington, Novi, Livonia and South Lyon as well as Northville, we feel it only proper to return part of the proceeds to the charities in these areas."

To this end the following board has been appointed to select deserving recipients of these funds.

Farmington: Mrs. Leonard Slidwell, Plymouth, Mrs. Margaret R. Hough; Livonia, Mrs. W. E. Parks.

Northville, Mrs. William S. Milne, Mrs. Harry F. Wagenschutz, and Herman Mochman.

Last year (1964-65) most of the award winners were:

Farmington (Tau Beta Camp (Neurological Development Section).

Livonia, Well Baby Clinic, Livonia Association for Retarded Children.

Northville, Northville Historical Society, King's Daughters, Mirpah Circle.

Plymouth, Plymouth Symphony Society, Plymouth Women's Club (Loch Rio Belleville Girls Town); St. John's League, Plymouth (For Plymouth State Home-Braces and Special Shoes).

Institutions, Northville State Hospital.

Kendallarks Perform At St. Fabians School

The Kendallarks, a Farmington Womens Chorus, under the direction of George Assemany, sang to an audience at St. Fabian's school. The captive audience were the children, grades 1 thru 3, and were entertained by the chorus singing when Marion Spencer as Sandman came out to do "Mr. Sand-Chim Chim Chree, Do Re Me, Hello Dolly and Pass Me By. The Kendall Tone Trio, Marlowe Belanger, Sue McCallum and Marion Spencer in brightly colored sashes, sang "Yellow Bird," accompanied by Olga Miller. Betty O'Connor and Bea Scaglione played musical games with the children.

The Hooten Amies sang several songs with the children joining in loud and clear on "This Land Is Your Land." Then Bea Scaglione played musical games with the children.

The Kendallarks will be guests of the Mother and Daughter Fashion show at the Astinich Lutheran Church on May 15. The chorus and small acts will present a delightful program. They will end this season with the June 1 show at the Rotunda Inn for the Farmington Women's Club.

Those interested in joining the Kendallarks for the fall season are asked to call Mrs. O'Connor, MA 6-9004. Sopranos are most cordially invited and a few openings in the alto and second section are needed.
