Consumers Power Recipe of the Month

POLYNESIAN PORK

A tantalizing combination of flavors. Try this easy-to-do recipe on the "Burner-with-a-Brain" of your Gas Range.

- 1/4 cup water
- 1/4 cup soy sauce
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 2 1/2 pounds pork, cut into 2-inch strips
- 2 (1 pound, 4 ounce) cans pineapple chunks
- 1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1/4 cup cornstarch
- 1/4 cup vinegar
- 2 medium onions, thinly sliced
- 2 large green peppers, cut into strips

Cooked rice (5 cups)

Bring water, soy sauce and salt to boil over medium flame; reduce to simmer flame. For controlled top burn, select desired flame and set dial at 225° to boil: 200° to simmer. Add pork; cover; simmer 1 hour or until tender. Drain pineapple; reserve 2 1/2 cups syrup. Combine syrup, sugar, cornstarch and vinegar; add to pork. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add pineapple and onion; simmer 10 minutes. Add green pepper; simmer 5 minutes. Serve with rice. For a glamorous touch, garnish with pineapple tops. Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

ALC Vice President Menter Named to Seminary Post

MINNEAPOLIS — Dr. N. A. Menter, Detroit, vice president of The American Lutheran Church since 1961, will join the faculty of the ALC's Columbus, O. seminary on Jan. 1, as assistant to the president Dr. E. C. Fendt.

Dr. Menter's term as vice president of the ALC will expire at the end of the year. He is 68 and is not eligible for reelection.

Announcement of the appointment by the seminary board of regents, was made at a convention of the ALC's Michigan District in Port Clinton, Ohio, this week. Dr. Menter had served as Michigan district president for 20 years. He will retire from that position also on Dec. 31. Dr. Menter will be succeeded as district president by the Rev. Robert L. Wietelmann of Livonia, Michigan, who has been assistant to the district president since 1961.

All meats should be re-wrapped for freezer storage. It is best to wrap meat in the exact portions to be used. Lamb cuts will keep well up to six months — but ground meat should be held only two to three months.

'Best of Show' Art Award
