

"Beauty Is Our Bounty" Theme For Garden Club Convention

If you have ever put purchased your spring bonnet, don't be alarmed. These are not the latest fashions in headgear in the city. They are hats that these five belles it will be high fashion headgear for the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan will wear at the Harbor Springs. The convention will be held in Boyne Highlands and is titled "Our Country."

With another bird with outspread wings. Moss encircles the creation with a violet plant pecking out of the moss. We have advance news that the hat is not complete in this photo for a can of angle iron will be on the top of the trip and the bird will have a fresh one in it's beak every day.

The peaked beret worn by the girl in the center of the group is a stylish figure is a stylish nestle against the pine cones.

A branch of Yorked red cherries is growing on the cool side of the hat. The hat is with clusters of cherries on either side. The yellow tissue stands high on a stem of the hat. The hat is a cente nor Glady's King's champagne.

Members of the Children's Entertainment Guild of Livonia met at the site of the new building on Tuesday, June 15, to discuss plans to skip Rosenthal, City Librarian, a check for $100. The Guild's programs over the past year, was given in support of the new building efforts on behalf of our children rather than profit, any proceeds not needed to finance future programs are donated to the Children's Museum of children's books or for use in the story hour program. At the meeting, the Guild is contemplating an adult series for the coming year, and plans to sponsor a series of cultural entertainment to Livonia.

The Children's Entertainment Guild has recently completed a highly successful season during which it presented the Wayne State University Children's Theatre production of "The Wonderful Lamp" in March. The Detroit Severo Ballet Company in "The Nutcracker" in December, and The Reed Marionettes in "The Three Kings" in November.

All members of the Children's Entertainment Guild work hard throughout the year and particularly the Committee Chairmen whose names are: General Chairman, Mrs. Oliver H. Wigner; Secretary, Mrs. Richard Eion; Treasurer, Mrs.

The Guild welcomes to its membership adults interested in its aims. Inquiries may be directed to the General Chairman, Mrs. Oliver H. Wigner, 427-1186.
