

Redford Nipped for Title

Championship honors in the annual July 4 Holiday-Class D baseball tournament, sponsored by Livonia's Recreation Department, went to an outsider.

Ann Arbor emerged as the kingpin and the winner of the Mayor's Trophy, but not before Local area teams distinguished themselves in the three-day, one-defeat-and-out competition.

In Monday night's title game, it was Ann Arbor by a 1-0 score over North Redford's Earl Morrill with the lone run coming in the bottom of the seventh and final inning.

Ann Arbor's thrill-packed victory came after the team from the University City and nipped Plymouth, 2-1, in Monday's semifinals, while the Morrill team blanked Livonia's Phillippi Giants, 4-0.

Rick Barryman of Redford and Mark Carrow, backed horns in a scoreless duel in the championship struggle until Mike Abbott of Ann Arbor clouted a triple with one out in the seventh.

Tragedy then followed. The next two Ann Arbor batters received intentional walks to load the bases and make possible a play at any spot.

But Mike Conner spoiled the Redford hopes by shooting a single to left to send over Abbott to end the game.

Barryman gave up only three hits, two of them in the last inning, while striding out 10. Mark Carrow, the winning pitcher, scattered five hits and allowed only two men to reach third, both after two were out.

The Phillippi Giants copped the consolation title with a 4-0 win over the Plymouth Optimists. Chris Wendrick hurled the shutout, giving up five hits.

Gary Birkeit doubled in Larry Russaz with the Giants' first run. Then a single by Al Wallman, triple by Dave Stett and an error made it 3-0 in the fourth. In the sixth, Wallman was hit by a pitch and Paul Hariga and Larry Meyers followed with singles.

Wallman finished the series with six hits in eight trips to the plate.

Plymouth's Jack Robertson gave up only two hits against Ann Arbor in the semifinal. He deserved a better fate, since the winning run scored on an error and Ann Arbor's first marker came across on a passed ball. Robertson fanned 12 in the game.

Dave Bouras flipped a three-hit shutout for North Redford against the Giants in the semifinals. All four Redford runs came in the sixth inning on hits by Dick Becker, Leland Bleske and Harry Kendrick, two errors and a sacrifice fly by Bill Fahey.

In earlier action Earl Morrill scored a 3-1 verdict over Ypsilanti as Rick Barryman flipped a four-hitter in the second inning on singles by Riley and Fox, a double by Fahey and a triple by Ferguson.

The Plymouth Optimists ousted the Livonia Lakers with Ron Byrne beating Bull Woods on the mound. A two-run single by Jack Robertson was the big hit for the winners.

The Phillippi Giants received another great pitching job from Larry Russaz in blanking the Rockets, 8-0. Russaz permitted two hits and fanned eight. Wallman drilled three hits to head the Giants' attack.

Livonia's Lakers fell to Ann Arbor, 4-1, in the final. The fact Bill McAlpine fanned 10 in a losing cause. All the Ann Arbor runs came in the second inning. Greg Coleman and Paul Sorenson socked the only hits for the Lakers.

Name Arch Moore, New General Manager at Cloverlanes Bowl. Appointment of a general operating manager, assistant manager and a day manager for the Cloverlanes Bowling establishment, 28900 Schoolcraft, 28900 Schoolcraft Road, has been announced by the Great Lakes Recreation Corp.

Elmer Klawuhn, of Redford Township, is the new assistant manager and will be in charge during the evening hours.

sonnel and tournament directors, (3) High School and College players who have received letters in tennis, (4) Winners of previous novice tournaments, (5) Residents of less than three months in the community they represent, (6) Anyone who has reached the quarter finals of a previous novice championship.

There will be an entry fee of 25 cents for Seniors and a fee of 10 cents for all those in the Junior Divisions.

The winners from the various divisions will represent Livonia in the News Novice tournament. The championship semifinals will be held on August 8-7 and the finals on August 14-15.

Seck Class F Camps. Teams in the 13-year-old Class F competition at Plymouth are seeking baseball games during the evening or on weekends. The league is sponsored by the Plymouth Recreation Department.

Those desiring information about games are requested to contact Vern Schlowski at 453-9287.

Wayne State University sophomore tennis player Gil Hudson noted a 49-3 record in high school as his team won four conference and regional titles and one state championship.

Wayne State University's golf team had five different players claim medalist honors in the team's first five matches of the 1966 season.

The thought of football naturally brings up the high schools and the archaic Michigan rule which keeps prep teams from enjoying sufficient time to get ready for the opening game.

No prep team officially may assemble until the last Monday in August. The net result — the preps have less than three weeks to complete preparations for their initial action.

Coaches long have argued they can't do the job.

Many have cheated. Like the coach at Austin who got caught last August. As a result the coach was barred and Austin couldn't field a varsity team in 1965.

The coaches have been told that there's nothing to prohibit their footballers from throwing a ball around, as long as the drills aren't organized and there is no coach on the premise.

Nonsense to such a regulation which precipitates "hiding in the dark."

Let's give the preps another week of drills. If, by doing so, one boy is saved from any kind of an injury, all of us can rise up and cheer.
