

GOP All The Way

Richard D. Kuhn, Republican candidate for the U.S. Congress in the 19th District, has publicly pledged his support to the party's nominee for the office he seeks, regardless of the outcome of the Aug. 2 Primary.

Kuhn at a meeting of Citizens for Kuhn Committee held in Pontiac, said, "The problems facing our nation and the world call for the kind of judgment and decisions that only an effective two-party system can provide."

Republican philosophy is needed urgently in Washington and no member of our party should permit minor differences of opinion or personal likes or dislikes to overshadow the real issues or to stand in the way of putting Republicans in office.

"I have urged all of those people campaigning for me to respect the decision of Republican voters in this Primary and to put forth their best efforts in behalf of the nominees. I sincerely hope all of my fellow Republicans will join us in this effort."

73,660 Counted in Census

An official census completed last week shows that there are 73,660 persons in Westland, incorporated as a city May 16.

The census was taken so that the new city can receive more funds from the state through the gas and weight tax monies.

It is expected that the Secretary of State office in Lansing will certify the census total within a week.

Unofficial estimates of the city's population before the census was taken ranged from 70,000 to 80,000.

GARDEN CITY SCHOOL administrators and teachers combined their efforts for the recent signing of the district's first master contract for the faculty. On hand for the event were (left to right) Othmar J. Lenze, president of the Garden City Education Association, teachers' group; Raymond Kenyon, school board president; and Bracken L. Snow, assistant superintendent. Negotiations on the first master contract began in late February with agreement reached in mid-June.

Garden City Candidate Outlines Teenage Code of Behavior

Garden City Municipal Judge candidate Charles E. Lowe has proposed a "teenage code of behavior" and a probation program for youth offenders.

Lowe, a former mayor, has filed nominating petitions for the August 2 primary election for both the single opening under the current city charter and the proposed revised charter which includes two judgeships.

In starting his series of neighborhood meetings this week Lowe emphasized the position of the municipal code to teenage offenders.

"My program calls for a responsible program of probation and strong guidance so that youngsters do not become repeaters," he said.

"Responsible citizens volunteer a few hours of their time to help these youngsters over the rough spots," Lowe said in outlining the successful youth program under the Royal Oak Municipal Court. With the use of community volunteers helping the teenagers it costs the city "very little for the type of service rendered," Lowe said.

The program has proved successful in Royal Oak and if I am elected judge, I would like to investigate the system further with an eye to adopting it in Garden City, the candidate promised.

"I would also like to see the adoption of a teenage Code of Behavior in the community whereby teens themselves draw up a set of 'commandments' to use as guidelines for ethical and moral behavior," Lowe said.

"After all, the authority of the judgeship should be used to promote the good of the community and I can't think of a better place to start than with our young people," he concluded.

Lowe, who lives at 909 Gardwell, was mayor from 1960-62 and during his administration, Kmart Store and Wolverine Industries were brought into the community to help improve the tax base.

Garden City C of C Plans Golf Outing

Garden City Chamber of Commerce members are busy getting in practice swings for the annual golf outing and dinner, on Tuesday, July 26, at the Fox Hills Golf and Country Club in Plymouth.

Mrs. Emily Palmer, chamber secretary said there is a $6 charge for the all-day golf outing and $8 for the dinner, to start at 7:30 a.m. In addition, swimming facilities will be available for an additional charge.

Mrs. Palmer said that she has sent out 400 tickets to members if persons want more tickets or information, they may call her.

Liquor Permits Get New OK from Westland

The Westland City Council last week reconfirmed four liquor licenses after the State Liquor Control Commission pointed out that the current licenses now up for renewal carry previous approval by the Nankin Township Board. Unanimously approved were Class C liquor licenses for Frank Skrubbellos, 1862 Wayne Road, Michael Litch, Wayne and Cherry Hill Roads; Wayne Amusement Co., 7420 N. Wayne Road, and Clarence Johnson, 390 S. Wayne Road.

Roger Rosendale, director of the license division for the L.C.C. wrote the City Council that the new approval is needed since the licenses show a Nankin Township Board municipal body although the four are now in the new city of Westland.

$550 Stolen from Bar
Wolani's Bar, 21831 Ford Road, Garden City, had $550 in cash and change stolen from the building early Friday morning.

The Garden City Police Department reported that Richard Warden, 3070 Warren, left the building at 3:20 a.m. that morning and an employee, James Davis, 27, of 1810 Gilman, entered at 7:05 a.m. and discovered the burglary.

There was $150 in change taken from a locked office desk and $400 in cash from a cash register.

There was no sign of how the burglar entered the building.

Husband Found Guilty
A Garden City man was found guilty last week of assault and battery and had his sentence suspended by Acting Municipal Judge John Seiler.

Neal Johnson, 27, of 6045 Inkster, had pleaded not guilty to the charge made by his wife, Lois, 22, now living at 34238 Fernwood, Wayne.

Mrs. Johnson told policemen that her husband had slapped her, twisted her arm, and battered her head against a kitchen door.

Johnson admitted the beating to policemen.

Redford J. P. Seeks Judgeship

James L. Ryan, President of the Wayne County Justices of the Peace Association, today announced that he is a candidate for Wayne County Circuit Judge.

Active in lower court administrative affairs, Ryan is a member of the state-wide Committee on Minor Court Reorganization, serving on the subcommittees on civil procedure and apportionment.

As a representative of the Justice Courts throughout the County, he is a member of the select committee on Legion Aid to the Indigent in Wayne County.

A graduate of the University of Detroit School of Law, Ryan was a former law journal staff member and helped form an early Legal Aid Clinic at that school. He was an officer of the Delta Theta Phi Law Professional Fraternity.

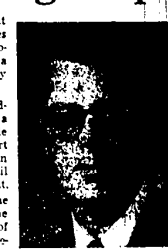

A former associate of the law firm of Waldron, Brennan, Maher and Brickley, Rayson was elected Justice of the Peace in Redford Township in 1963, and two years later was elected President of the county-wide association by his colleagues.

In addition, he is presently engaged in the private practice of law as a partner in the firm of Ryan & Burress.

A member of the Negligence Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan and of the Northwest Lawyers Association, he has been engaged extensively in a general civil and criminal practice.

Recently selected for the promotion to Lieutenant Commander of the Naval Reserve, Ryan served as a law specialist in the U.S. Navy for nearly four years, where he was legal advisor to the Commanding General at the Marine Corps Base at Camp Pendleton, California.

A former attorney for Burton Abstract and Title Company and instructor in Business Law at Palomar College, he lives with his wife, the former Mary Rogers, and their children, at 15961 Denby in Redford Township.

Six D.O.'s Added to PCHA

The Peoples Community Hospital Authority Board of Directors unanimously approved the admission of six more osteopaths to the staff of its hospitals Thursday, bringing the total to 16, all within the past month after appeals were started six years ago.

One of the osteopaths, Dr. Raymond B. Dow, is a member of the PCHA Board and submitted his resignation to accept the medical appointment. Dr. Dow was one of the Taylor Township representatives.

The six were all recommended by the Medical Advisory Committee after their appeals were forwarded to them by the board's Operating Committee.

A seventh osteopath, Dr. Frank R. Renier, was granted an adjournment of his appeal since he couldn't personally attend Thursday's hearing. The six osteopaths and the hospitals they will be allowed to practice in are Donald J. Clifton, and Charles E. Payroll, all at the Annapolis Hospital; Dr. Bow, Outer Drive Hospital; and William A. Athens and William Hailer, both at Seaway Hospital.

Observing the Scene

from you, take down your address when you are leaving and when you plan to return and will check your home at frequent intervals during your absence.

It is also suggested you leave your key with a neighbor in case of emergency.

Last of all don't allow the local newspaper to publish a notice of your trip until you return.

You can depend on us, because you too might return right in the middle of the burglar's visit and believe me the reliving and retelling still sets the heart to pounding and the blood pressure up.

There are enough other things to make the blood pressure go up like war, taxes and civil rights or lack of some — who needs burglars?
