It was called a "Little Shower" and it was for a little tike, a baby girl named Susan Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wozniak, 31580 Marblehead, who made a forced entry into civilization, causing a bit of confusion.

On the way to St. Joseph's Hospital in Pontiac, Mrs. Mathes, a neighbor, who was driving Mrs. Wozniak, realizing the predicament, stopped at a gas station where she spotted a policeman. It was an unusual experience driving down Woodward at 90 miles per, with a police escort, sirens whirling and all.

At 8 p.m. Thursday evening, guests arrived at the "Little Shower" for a garden party at the home of Mrs. Walter Brancich.

Attending were Mrs. Raymond Manlewski, Mrs. John King, Mrs. Donald Kinsler, Mrs. William Spence, Mrs. Tom Mathes, Mrs. Raymond Mill, Mrs. Eugene George, Mrs. Kenneth Weston, Mrs. Manfred Nardichio, Mr. Sam Ekay, Mrs. Raymond Belcher and guest of honor, Mrs. Vernon Wozniak.

Of course during the evening there was discussion on what big hoochie little angel can create. An appropriate centerpiece, created by Mrs. John King, of pink baby rose buds, old fashioned lavender, blue larkspur and white spirea filler arranged in a ceramic lamb container, graced the tea table.

MET UP with Ellen Shuster at the Livonia Mall recently. Ellen was a long-time employee of Arnold's Drugs here and made many friends. She sends her best wishes and intends to keep her promise of getting her friends and acquaintances soon.

Recent house guest of Rex and Vi Lentz, acquaintances made during the days of World War II, were Virginia and Stanley Dewes from Oakland, Calif. Vi's husband was in the Pacific with the Seabees at the Iles, Virginia and Vi met while working for the Navy in San Francisco, which was directly connected with supplying Rex's outfit with supplies.

Vi knew where her husband was stationed in the Pacific area all the time because of where the supplies were being sent. When Rex was discharged, they all became good friends and have been corresponding ever since. It was a short but very hectic three days of reminiscing and having fun.

Greg and Steven Orr have been having a ball at their grandmother's cottage on the Canadian side of Lake St. Clair. On the 4th, they were joined by other members of their clan, mom and dad (Charles and Emily) sister, Sasia and cousin, Dan, who sailed their 26' Polaris from Crescent Sail Yacht Club to Belle River for a few days.

Sasia will head for Ohio with cousin Dan where her uncle will take her flying in his plane.

Harry and Betty Anderson spent a week with their son Jerry and daughter-in-law Tammi at their home in Blacksburg, Md. Jerry and Tammi are former residents of Farmington. While Harry and Betty were sightseeing in Washington, they saw the President take off in his helicopter, leaving for Omaha. Now that Mom and Dad are back Jerry's sister and husband, Debbie and Bill Mohn are taking off for a visit with Jerry and Tammi while guests who baby-sit two-month old Kimberly.

A "Sip and Dip" (that's the pool kind of dip and not the other) was attended by Marvin and Barb Stevens, Reg and Eleanor Sandey, Linda and Bill Dimock, Barbara and Henry Haigh, Larry and Jan Poznik, Colleen and Tim Dickinson, Bert and Margaret DeHaan and Don and Doreen Martin at the Wendt's.

When swim suits were hung out to dry and casual clothes were donned, the gang congregated in the theatre area (basement recreation room) and had a blast viewing "keep cool" slides of Past New Years Eve parties that included the group.
