

Contests Begin for Miss "Wendy Ward" And Miss "Sugar and Spice" Aug. 8

Montgomery Ward and Company officials; Barbara Loren and Loretta Weller, coordinators of Ward's "Wendy Ward" charm school in Southeastern Michigan, announced the third annual Miss "Wendy Ward" and Miss "Sugar and Spice" will be selected from among contestants in contests to be held in all ten Southeastern Michigan Ward stores from August 8 through August 31.

Miss "Wendy Ward" and Miss "Sugar and Spice" will receive valuable gifts. The first prize for each girl will be an all-expense paid round trip for herself and her mother to San Francisco, California, by TWA airlines, where she'll visit all of San Francisco's fabulous attractions.

Other prizes will include a complete back-to-school wardrobe for each girl, Samsonite luggage, transistor radio, and $25 worth of current popular records.

Beginning Aug. 8, every teenage girl from 12 to 18 years of age visiting her neighborhood Montgomery Ward Junior Shop will be offered the opportunity of being photographed in the back-to-school wardrobe of her choice.

She will also be asked to write a 25-word essay on the entry form telling why she chose the outfit in which she was photographed. A finalist from each Ward store will be selected on the basis of poise, personal grooming, personality and originality on the part of the essay that she was asked to write.

Each store queen will then compete for the Miss "Wendy Ward" title on a special Montgomery Ward sponsored live television program on Sept. 14. Miss "Sugar and Spice" will be chosen on the same program.

There the contestants will vie for the honor of becoming Miss "Wendy Ward" and Miss "Sugar and Spice" before a panel of judges who will consider points such as poise, posture, personality and conversational ability.

Miss "Sugar and Spice" entrants, girls from 8 to 11 years of age, will also be asked to choose a back-to-school outfit in the Girls' Department of their nearest Ward store. To be photographed in it and then write a 25-word essay on why she'd like to become Miss "Sugar and Spice."

Each entrant in the future contest will receive their picture as a "Miss Wendy Ward" souvenir.

Mrs. Douglas Walter Day

Souter-Day Take Vows In Double-Ring Ceremony

Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church, Livonia, was the scene of the double ring ceremony that united Shari Lou Souter and Douglas Walter Day, July 30. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Souter, 41311 W. Chicago, Livonia and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Walter Day, 11315 Cranston, Livonia.

Rev. Arthur Beumler performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an empire style, silk tulle de soie dress with a Venice lace bodice. She wore an elbow length veil with a bow of silk tulle de soie over Venice lace. Her flowers were orchids and Stephanotis.

Joan Syer, Garden City, was maid of honor. Lou Ann and Lynn Plyer of Lapeer, (cousins of the bride) were bridesmaids.

Laurie Plyer, (bride's cousin) of Lapeer, was flower girl.

All of the attendants wore dresses of turquoise linen trimmed in dark turquoise velvet ribbon. The flower girl wore white trimmed in dark velvet ribbon.

Their flowers were cascades of pink carnations and Jeffrey Klenk, of Livonia.

Flower "Buffs" Show Day Lilies at Livonia Mall

Hemmerocallis, commonly known as Day Lilies, were in full bloom at Livonia Mall on July 23 and it proved to be a "man's world" when it came to horticulture.

Over 300 flower buffs, from as far as Saline, flocked to the Mall to enter their scapes (stems) and arrangements in the Southern Michigan Iris and Hemmerocallis Society's first Day Lily Show and Judging.

The event was held under the auspices of the American Hemmerocallis Society, whose membership numbers around 5,000 from coast to coast.

According to the society's National Exhibition Chairman, Mrs. Royal A. Ferris, Jr. of Dallas, Texas, Metropolitan Detroit's "first" showing ranked among the nation's most enthusiastic.

Mrs. Ferris, along with Mrs. C. W. Schmalstieg of Kettering, Mrs. George Richardson of Dayton, O. Fred Kahn of Libanow, and Mrs. Wm. D. Owen of Dallas, Texas, formed the judges committee presenting the National Awards.

The eight Thematic Divisions and their winners were: (1) "Summer in a single Flower," Mrs. Harold T. Gots, Inkster. (2) "Beauty in the Rough," Kitty M. honey, Farmington. (3) "Season Sizzlers," Ruth Esper, Farmington. (4) "Summer Retreat," Mrs. Max Phillips, Garden City. (5) "Crown Jewel," Mrs. Harold T. Gots, Inkster. (6) "Solitary," Mrs. Bruce Briggs, Northville. (7) "Garden Party," Kay Gobeille, Farmington. (8) "Fun in the Sun" (dun for Division) Becky and Beverly Esper, 16 year old twins of Farmington.

National Award winners in 'specific' categories were: Steve Janovak of Beverly Hills for best seedling; Al Golden of Southfield, for "Best Francis Fay" (which is the most popular Day Lily known and grown nationally); Francis Hughes of South-

Dishwashers Easy

Many pieces once considered too fragile for automatic dishwashers have been proven to stand up well after repeated washing in "mechanical" mounds.

Most American-made china, gold-trimmed dinnerware, crystal, and sterling react well when carefully loaded on coated racks.

Welcome New Member

Livonia Auxiliary to Post No. 3941, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held their first meeting conducted by their new president, Berthel Campbell, recently. One new member was initiated, Dorothy C. Kirchhoff.

After the meeting a celebration was in order with chocolate cream pie and coffee.
