St. Genevieve Rosary Altar Society met Tuesday, Sept. 6, at 8 p.m. in the church hall. Recently installed officers officiated. "Getting Acquainted" was the main business of the evening. To carry out the theme, the society's aims and its various committees were explored. Committees form the vital apostolate of the society. Those present had an opportunity to get to know each other over coffee and dessert.

Membership is open to registered parishioners. Newcomers are especially welcome.

Presbyterian Youth Visit Inner-City Church

About midnight, Aug. 20, the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church at 9601 Hubbard Road in Livonia, was a place of activity and fun. The Senior High Fellowship, along with their sponsor Pat Conway, part of the staff and a few parents were awaiting guests.

On schedule, a chartered Greyhound bus pulled into the church parking lot and 33 people of various and assorted sizes, ages, etc., alighted. They were the First Presbyterian Church, Minot, N.D. Flanbulbs were snapping, greetings were exchanged and confusion reigned in general.

This was the start of a week of work for this group of Senior High students—the work being conducted at Grace Lutheran Church, 5917 Van Dyke in Detroit, as well as church with inner-city problems.

After a midnight snack both groups and their sponsors bedded down in sleeping bags for the night in the church.

At 8 a.m., the young people were eating breakfast, at 10 a.m. they were worshipping in church, 11:30 a light lunch was served and at 12:15 all were on their way downtown to see the Detroit Tigers wallow Baltimore. After returning to the church for a chicken dinner, which started in July of 1965, School for a mission church journeyed to Whitish, Mont. to paint a church and conduct a Vacation Bible School.

A trip through General Motors Tech Center and Greenfield Village were part of the events planned for the Minot group by Rosedale. The weekend found the Minot group situated in homes of the Rosedale Church people where they were entertained.

After a worship service at 8 p.m. Aug. 28, the group from Minot, N.D. departed via chartered bus, still planning a sight-seeing jaunt in Chicago on Monday. This caravan was a dream
