Redford Has a Ghost
 A ghost is reported to be haunting certain sections of Redford village and some of the inhabitants are terrified at the visitation of the uncanny spectacle. One family is reported to have moved because the lady of the house refused longer to associate with uncanny spirits.
 A man, more brave than some of his neighbors, made an attempt to catch the ghost, but as usual was unsuccessful for ghosts are not catchable, that is, they are not ordinary enough to be handled in the ordinary way. However, this man's hand came in contact with something fuzzy when he reached for an apparition that was climbing a ladder that leaned against his house. The next morning tracks, that resembled the foot prints of a babe, were found in his garden so that by some it is concluded that it is a baby ghost that is trying to scare the people out of their wits.

Like all well regulated ghosts, this one perambulates only on very dark nights when the grave yards are yawning, etc., and it is difficult for anyone to get a very close interview with him or her for there are both male and female ghosts, you know.

The committee on sports is trying to engage the thing for an added attraction at the Come-All-Yes.
