

Senior Citizens Friendship Unit

The Friendship Unit of the Senior Citizens Club of Livonia enjoyed a delightful summer with well-attended picnics at the homes of the Gus Krossas and Grace Loesch and a day at Camp Dearborn.

On Sept. 1 the first meeting of the fall season was held. This was the annual meeting and the following were elected to office: Grace Loesch, President; Cliff Buskley, vice-president; Agnes Fetterly, Secretary; and Fred Gartner Treasurer.

On Sept. 8, the Club celebrated its first anniversary with a dinner at the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church. Several City Officials were invited.

Fashion Magic by Demery's To Be Shown Sept. 27

The Women of Kendallwood Farms invite women and their guests to share an evening of Fashion Magic by Demery's, Farmington.

September 27, at 8 p.m. St. Fabian social hall will spotlight the designs that reflect the taste of Demery's. Sally Rotary and Mrs. Lanhann, fashion coordinator for Demery's, have blended their talents to bring an evening of magic.

The new look of '67 feature high voltage colors of spicy orange, perma blue and jewel green, swirled into enveloping prints. The little, nothing dresses that, through texture, have become something. The Kneebaring geometrics and the much in demand double knits, these all add up to Demery's fall look of total charm.

You are invited to a memorable evening, shared with old friends and new neighbors. Refreshments will be served after the adventure into Demery's world of fashion. President Betty Gleason, will welcome and introduce all to the executive board, at this time you will be informed of the exciting program for the '66-'67 season.

Newlywed Thompsons To Live in Plymouth

Nancy Jane Fairman became the bride of Gary Wayne Thompson at a ceremony held in the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, Garden City.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Fairman, Livonia, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Thompson, Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length chantilly rose point lace over tulle gown. Her shoulder length silk illusion veil was topped with a crown of seed pearls and crystals.

Susan Fairman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a turquoise blue tulle dress with an empire waist which was accented by turquoise and white embroidered roses. Her veil was also floor length turquoise blue chiffon edged with the same turquoise and white roses. She carried white carnations tipped in turquoise and wore a pearl necklace.

The bridesmaids Mrs. Judy Cressman and June Lin Lewis wore similar gowns in pink accented by white pearl necklaces. Their veils were also floor length and accented in pink and white embroidered roses. They carried white carnations edged in pink.

Bill Cressman was best man and Frank Thompson, and Timothy Lasslett were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe sheath dress with blue and white accessories. Her corsage was of red sweetheart roses. The groom's mother wore a pink crepe sheath with an overcoat of pink brocade with matching accessories, and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Lofys, in Plymouth. Dinner was served to 250 guests from Plymouth, Northville, Garden City and Canada.

After a trip to the Pocono Mountains, Pa., the newlywed couple will live in Plymouth.

Fir, Cedar Favored Preservatively - treated Douglas fir and western red cedar lumber are recommended for planter boxes.
