

Sam Begian Wins New Edison Post

Farmington resident, Sam S. Begian has been given new responsibilities in the relay division of Detroit Edison's electrical system department. Begian is a native and long-time resident of Highland Park. He was graduated from Highland Park High School and was employed by the Highland Park police department as a radio engineer while he worked toward an engineering degree at the University of Michigan. He is a registered professional engineer and is a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers. Following his graduation from U-M in 1952, he joined the relay division of Detroit Edison's electrical system department.

Begian and his wife, Ethel, have six children and make their home at 3415 Cortland in Farmington. He is chairman of the official board of the First Methodist Church and president of the Alta Loma Homeowners Association, Farmington.

PAUL BARBER, trombonist, who teaches instrumental music in Farmington, gets an assist from his wife, also a Farmington music teacher, in sounding the call for adults to join the "Farmington Civic Band" while Jimmy Joyce, band student at Shiawassee, checks the score.

New Class To Form 'Farmington Civic Band'

Late announcement has been made of a new class to be offered in Farmington's Adult Education Program. Billed as the "Farmington Civic Band," the course is designed to bring adult instrumentalists together for an evening a week to play good band literature. Sessions begin October 4 at 7:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. in the Band Room at Farmington High School. Instructor is Paul Barber, trombonist, who teaches instrumental music in Farmington and is a graduate of the University of Michigan.

Barber urges residents to dig those instruments out of the closet and join the fun. "There are no restrictions relating to ability to play," he emphasizes. Fee for the 10 week course is $5.00.

To Sell, Yule Cards

The Farmington Jaycee Auxiliary women are selling Christmas cards, ribbon, and wrapping paper as a ways and means project this year. Profits of the sale will go back into the community which is the main purpose of funds earned by the Auxiliary. Anyone interested in seeing the selection of cards please call Virginia Harris 476-5486.

The award covers all phases of the dealership operation including administration, service, performance, community relations and facilities. Douglas Dameron of the automobile company stated that this was one of only 19 such awards made to over 5,000 Chrysler Corporation dealerships.

MR. AND MRS. BRIAN BEALS

Bridal Pair Honored At Post-Nuptial Open House

An open house in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Brian Lee Beals was held Sunday afternoon, September 18, at the home of the bride's grandaunt, Miss Annabel Martin on Guilford Drive, Royal Oak.

Mary Jane McCarthy and Brian Lee Beals were united in marriage in a double ring candlelight ceremony, August 19, at Central Woodward Christian Church, Detroit, followed by a dinner reception at Botsford Inn.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCarthy of 24650 Farmington Road. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Grace Beals of Windsor, Ontario, and the late Mr. Vern Beals, formerly of Farmington.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Farmington High School. The bride is a graduate of the University of Michigan, has completed her first year of law school, and presently is a high school teacher. The bridegroom graduated from The University of Michigan, B.S.E. (Aerospace E.), is employed by Veda, Incorporated, and is attending graduate school working toward his Master of Science in Engineering degree in Aerospace Engineering. Following a trip East, the couple returned to Ann Arbor.
