It's clear that the sap is beginning to flow because the people are here and at 'em, getting busy all the time. Being busy naturally calls for a little more planning than does sitting and mope. So the people are getting the vacation homes pretty hot about now. Since we've got Easter vacation coming up, the kids will be free, enabling a good number of families to go jaunting.

The Durochers and Salsberys having just returned from touring Florida, will probably be staying home for a bit now. Both families took all the children and were away for over a week. Donald and Gerry Durocher of Monclair spent a total of nine days there taking in Daytona and lots of other places. They had a great time except for two things. Son Donald came down with the measles on the way down and daughter Karen contracted the same enroute back. The joys of child rearing! At least Dennis and Gary didn't get into the act.

LEONARD AND Barbara Salsbery, residents of Glenmoor, also spent their three weeks away around Daytona. Their girls, Laurie, Wendy and Jeanne and boys, Donald and Douglas didn't catch anything, except maybe some sunburn.

As we said, most of us are experiencing that let's get away from it all feeling, but the Cutzorts having just moved in during February are probably not bored with their surroundings as the rest of us. Their new home is on Purdie. John, who works at Campbell Machine, and wife Mary Lou have one little girl Louan, a year old.

Joan and M. J. Katsja can't wait until they have two little girls. As of March 30, they are re-registered in the mama and daddy class. Cheryl Louise, a six-pound, 11-ounce baby born at St. Mary's Hospital, is responsible for this, they are happy to say. The junior miss joins Chely, Steven and David.

NOW MOVING AND having babies are both ambitious projects in themselves, you'll agree, but when a person does them simultaneously it almost calls for a medal! That's just what Pat Rigg, barely of N. Stockton died March 21 she delivered a strapping eight-pound, ten-ounce son whom she and husband George named Christopher. A day later they brought the new parents to her for his signature in the hospital and the 27th of March, they moved. Now that's making the most of your time! Our new neighbors are former residents of Nankin Township and have one other child, Tracy age two. The head of the house is employed at American Motors. To top it all off, mom will be celebrating a birthday on April 13. Congratulations on everything, Pat.

Linda Couveau who was six on March 23 had quite a celebration the following Saturday. Mickey Mouse and clown decorations set the stage for fun as Linda's brothers Jimmy and Bobby and friends Patty, Betty, Donnie, Tommy and Gwen Robin, Michael and Danny Walden, Larry Dawson, Barbara Loebe, Brian Rice and Suzanne and Ronnie Whitcomb joined her for games, ice cream and cake.

MORE ICE CREAM and cake was served last Saturday at Leanne Hilliker's house on the occasion of her eighth birthday. Diane Kelo, Kelly Rollette, Leslie Browne, Tommy Brown, Carla Mayor, Mary Kay Gilbert, Peggy Husted, Cindy Katsja, Suzanne, McCormick and Sandy, Buchanan enjoyed the goodies with clowns and ballerinas completing the company.

At Jennifer and Meredith Fredericks' house on March 30 there were two birthday cakes, one for each girl. All the relatives came over of course to help the twin toddlers celebrate their first birthday.

We are pleased to announce that seven neighborhood children made their confirmation vows on April 2. They are Donna Kayor, wife Mary Lou have one little girl Louan, a year old.

We want to congratulate these young people who are members of St. Alexander's parish and wish all of them and you a blessed holiday.

Michigan's No. 1 crop in value is corn, with production at 110 million bushels in some years. Second to this come hay and pasture, and from these crops stem livestock and the products that bring two-thirds of Michigan's agricultural income.

Michigan leads the nation in the production of gypsum.

ALL AREA CHURCHES, like those throughout the world, are preparing special services for Easter. Making plans for a joint observance on Maundy Thursday are (a) to the Rev. Robert N. Sawyer, Jr., assistant minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington, the Rev. Joseph Pelham, Rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, and the Rev. George W. Ramsey, Minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington. The congregations of the two churches will join in an Ecumenical Commemoration of the Institution of the Lord's Supper at the Presbyterian Church on Maundy Thursday evening, April 7, at 8 p.m.

Four Churches Build Custom Baptist Groups Of United Tre Ore Worship

A United Good Friday service open to the general public will be presented by the Bethel Baptist and First Baptist churches of Farmington from 1 to 2:15 p.m. The service will be held at First Baptist Church, located at the junction of Farmington Road and Shawwassee Avenue.

Pastors speaking at the service will include the Rev. Gordon Ackerman of the Rice Memorial Methodist Church, the Rev. Edwin T. Clemens of the Evangelical Covenant Church, the Rev. Elsie A. Johns of the Clareville Methodist Church, and the Rev. Orland Thompson representing the Southfield Community Church.

Theme of the meditations will be Our Identification with Christ, dealing with such subjects as death with Christ, risen with Christ, living with Christ, and reigning with Christ. Each half hour service will include scripture reading, prayer, and music. Ministers will be seated on the hour and half hour, and are asked to leave at the same interval.

This annual union fellowship of worship has been an inspiration to all who have attended, and has formed a bond between the cooperating churches.

St. John's Of Passover

Members of St. John American Lutheran Church will sit down to a Passover meal Thursday evening at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Elsie Johns, 23225 Grand River Road, Farmington.

Directed by Larry Elcher, the church will present a cantata entitled, No Greater Love by the famous composer John Peterson. The church will be accompanied on the organ by Miss Rosalind Giebel and on the piano by Mrs. Elsie Johns.

Through the generosity of friends, the church will all be robed in beautiful new gold and red vestments. Easter Sunday will be the first occasion for wearing them.

The youth program of the church is built around its youth choir, who meet each week for rehearsal, devotion, and singing. Active and colorful, the choir will sing together on Sunday. Over 100 young people are ordinarily present and singing in the service.
