Gale Humm Achieves Recognition At W.M.U.

Gale A. Humm, 35630 Lyman Rd., received basic studies honors when Western Michigan University students with a scholastic point average of 3.0 out of a possible 4 points were recognized at the university's honors convocation held recently. Featured speaker at the ceremony was Solomon B. Asea, Uganda's ambassador to the United States.

ready for hanging. This exhibit will have sculptured pieces done by Mr. Karl A. Sjogran whose work delighted the public at the last exhibit.

Mr. John P. Glick, who is a well known potter in this area, and has been teaching at the Birmingham Art Association has graciously consented to have a display of his functional stoneware. Mr. Glick has a Master's Degree of Fine Arts and has studied at Wayne State University.

Miss Carol Duvall of The Living Show televised daily on Channel 4, WWJ-TV, has invited the board and members of the Farmington Artists Club to bring several of their paintings for her to televise on the show to be presented on April 27. Three or four artists are going to be sketching as the show is in progress from 9 a.m. until 10 a.m.

MRS. ROBERT SCHENKEL, publicity chairman of the Farmington Artists Club, is making a selection of art work to be shown on Carol Duvall's "The Living Show" for April 27. The WWJ-TV show will help to publicize the club's next exhibit to take place on April 29 and 30 from 11 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. at First Farmington Savings and Loan, 22725 Orchard Lake Rd.

We Call Them Jellies *

Take one small bikini, add a camisole and jellies, or (oh coy day!) the ruffle-cuff smock — and a surfmaid is properly packaged. Prepared for a dramatic unwrapping when she greets the water. How about those jellies? It started in Hawaii (inspired by the hot doggers' Beachbitches) and followed the surf to mainland shores. A widely flattering young look.

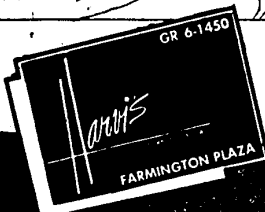

*We call them jellies cause jams don't shake this way. 100% cotton in bright beach prints.

The Hawaiian Village Pareu group:

- The bikini, 8-14, 15.00
- The smock, 8-16, 12.00
- The camisole, 8-16, 5.00
- The jellies, 8-16, 8.00

just wear a smile and a jantzen
