Farmington Enterprise
Newsboy of the Week

The Farmington Enterprise "Newsboy of the Week" is Dennis Green, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary W. Green of 2085 Birchwood in Farmington. Dennis is an eighth grader at Farmington Junior High School.

Slot car racing is Dennis's hobby. His favorite sports are baseball and track, in that order. He would like to be a baseball player when he grows up and he's a Pony League player at the present time.

DENNIS ALSO enjoys fishing as a pastime. He has two sisters, Kathy Sue and Karen, and two brothers, Carey and Tommy. His father is a salesman for the Metro Bolt and Fastener Corporation.

Dennis delivers the Farmington Enterprise to residents living on Tall Oaks, Birchwood, Chestnut, Maplewood, Farmington Road, Nine Mile and Cass streets in Tall Oaks Subdivision. He has a total of 87 Enterprise subscribers on his newspaper route.

Wood Creek Farms Village

Alan Goldman has received the National Science Foundation award for undergraduate research in zoology. He will be working on the effects of caging on the activity pattern of small mammals. This work will be carried out in Ann Arbor under the auspices of two doctoral students who will also be working on the effects of radio activity, light and temperature on these animals. The whole project has been set up with a grant from the Atomic Energy Commission. Congratulations Alan!

Paula Goldman is doing substitute teaching in Detroit. She substitutes in Art education for those who did not go to the Women's Association meeting Tuesday or who did not read about it in last week's Enterprise. Mr. Philip Daniels and Mr. Samuel Rubiner, members of the board of directors of the committee for the preservation of Farmington Township, Inc. have arranged for a luncheon, at 11:30, May 12, at the Oakland Hills Country Club. Following the luncheon there will be a demonstration of wigs and wiglets by Mr. May of Bloomfield. Please call Alice Billis, 6-6074, for further information tickets.

Ralph and Marian Zahmiser, and Barbie, left here Friday, the 15th, and drove to Harding, Pa. where they stayed with Marian's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Tuyle. Ralph and Marian left Barbie with her grandparents while they went on to New York City for a couple of days. On their return trip they stopped in Warren, O., to pick up Ralph's mother who will be here with them for two weeks. They reached home the 25th.

TOM and NAN HELD have moved in at 28467 Wellington. They have three children, Michael who will be 9 in August, Craig, 7, and Lynette, who will be 4 in June. They have come here from Farmington Oaks. Tom is with Ford in the Lincoln-Mercury Division. We welcome them warmly to Wood Creek.

Tom and Nan flew down to West Palm Beach, Florida last week Thursday and had four delightful vacation days in the sun before returning on a flight that reached Detroit at 4 a.m. this Monday morning.

Art and Joe Thurston and the three girls flew to St. Petersburg, Fla. the 7th of April and enjoyed a stay there until returning the 27th.

"You've been winding it too tight, huh?"

This Is Kimberley

By VERA R. KERASTAS
474-3237

One last reminder from Kay White, chairman of this Saturday (May 7) PTA family night supper with a cartoon show for the children. Help the PTA's only money-making event for the year become a sell-out.

Those desiring to hear the point of view of the Committee for the Preservation of Farmington Township on incorporation can attend their board members speak against a home rule city. Mrs. Edward Nash can be contacted for tickets at $3 per person. Mr. May of "Wigs and Things" will also be there to demonstrate the uses of wigs and wiglets.

Shades of the Boston Pops honored the air at the spring concert by the three East Junior High bands last Thursday evening. The skillful director, Mr. Donald Ross, is most able in squeezing out any latent musical talent, long-hair or pop, from these budding musicians, many of them from Kimberley. The concert band was lauded for their performance and accomplishment of earning a first-division rating at the Saline state competition in April.

At Tuesday's (April 26) court of honor for Boy Scout Troop 388, Gregory L. Fritts, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Fritts of Lincolnshire, was the recipient of the highest award given a scout, the Eagle Scout Award. At the formal ceremony attended by many honored guests, Mr. George Fletcher and Mr. Fred Monroy presented the troop's first Eagle award to this young man who is a stimulating guide and symbol for all members of this troop.

OTHER BOYS beginning their climb up this same ladder of success, achieved various degrees: Tenderfoot awards went to: Alfred Broadman, Donald Buchanan, Bill Cardwell, Mark Cherry, William C. Hunsont, and Mark Mason.

Second Class badges were earned by: Patrick Dygert, David Harsant, Kevin Kaimie, William Lemmer, Thad Naquin, John Mooney, and James White. First Class badges were earned by Tom Young and John Kerastas. Star rank achievers were Randy Belver, Frank Denmore, Philip Deira, Randy Kindler, Bruce Longfield, Frank Macleak, Richard McClure, Donald Mills, Craig Walsh, and Eric Walter.

The A.M.s Women's bowling league finished its season with high drama. A final roll-off on Thursday between the first-half season winners and the second-half winners resulted in a tense tie. The tenth frame roll-off finally produced the winners with a slim 5-4 pin lead. Congratulations to Jo Olson, captain, Marie Evans, Carol Moore, and absentee new-mother Lynn Roth, on winning the grand championship trophy. Second place winners Jean Martello, captain, Marion Olson, Emma Dunsen and Shirley Stinnett also received trophies. The recent community blood bank drive was a most successful venture, according to Lil Clark, chairman, and Marion Barringer, assistant chairman. They wish to thank all those who responded with donations thus providing a good showing for Kimberley. The busy telephoned who aided in this worthy cause were: Rose Acosta, Helen Casper, Carol Kelso, Betty Mageau, Sue Bowden, Blossom Matlen, Marie Evans, Jill Emerson, and Vernice Shipley.

The Clarks have been busy "birthdaying" all of April starting with a pajama party for Lee's twelfth birthday on April 2, a movie party for Jay's seventh on April 15, and John's "Jack Benny" birthday on April 21 at which a lot of his friends helped him to forget. Daughter Wynne and her husband Jon Lusk, now residents of Ann Arbor, were home for an Easter holiday. Wynne will graduate this year, and is now practicing teaching at the Wayne County Home for Retarded Children.

A sudden emergency operation relieved Mr. Curtis Snider state of his pastering appendicitis on April 14, at Beaumont Hospital. Happily, his recovery is progressing.

operation has progressed to the point that he is now able to return to work.

Other Kimberleyites who recently put to use their Blue Cross hospitalization were Evelyn Fletcher, Jo Olson, Irma Smith and Peg Luky.

The Kallgren family of Wicklow had both Tod (4) and Mrs. Rod Kallgren taking hospital sessions in April, but both operated by getting well in time for the spring family trip to Virginia to visit the paternal grandparents.

Turn on the TV to see some of your neighbors. Wally Barringer of Piper's Lane was a participant in a bowling tournament shown at a late hour. Dr. Gerry Yumilis was interviewed by Carol Duval on the channel 4 Living show last week on advances in cardiovascular surgery. In this what they mean by "moonlighting"!

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lukey entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fleming on their annual visit from Cincinnati. The Darrel Colleys helped Mr. Fleming celebrate his birthday with a champagne birthday party and Mrs. Nancy O'Malley of Kiltartan led the popular couple at a luncheon. Leaving Farmington, the Flemings will travel to St. Louis for a short stay and then finally to Hawaii to attend the fabulous Shriners' convention.

Mercyaires' Gain Fame

By LINDA OEHLE

Making a name for themselves through performances at social functions in the Detroit area, are the Mercyaires, a group of sixteen Gung Lady of Mercy upperclassmen. Wearing white blazers with the Mercy emblem and dark blue skirts, the girls performed at an ecumenical program sponsored by St. Alexander Parish at Southfield high school auditorium on May 1.

The girls sang "Benediction" for the program which featured as its main speaker Father John Murray who talked on the doctrine of religious freedom. Juniors Kathy Kelly, Janice Baranski, Cathy Frazier, Claudia Teley, Kathy Calice, Sharon Sosnowski and seniors Sue Kokoszka, Cindy Roney, Sandy Fleisher, Kathy Wilson, Linda Macunovich, Monica Kaminski, Barb Rozak and Mary Morin make up the Mercyaires, directed by Mr. Lawrence Tevens.

All the girls are members of Mercy's senior choral. THEIR PERFORMANCES include an appearance on "Scene II," a WJBK-TV show. They also performed at Silesian high school for a parents' organization meeting, and for a student assembly.

The Mercyaires have performed at an OLM parents' social and for the St. Clair Yachtwomen's Association and in April at Holy Trinity Family Center.
