Hall Names Sales Assoc. Of The Year

Owen E. Hall, President of Hall Associates, Inc., Realtors, this week announced the awarding of the firm's "Sales Associate of the Year" designation to Mrs. Marguerite S. Dale of 26634 Lyman Road. She participated in over one million dollars worth of sales to earn this distinction.

Mrs. Dale, who has lived in the area since 1957 and has three teenagers in Farmington schools, has been active in real estate sales since 1958. She previously spent 10 years in the mortgage and property management fields.

Hall stated, "Marguerite

Dale's deserved success is the direct result of client loyalty and referrals. She has also been particularly effective in working with corporations and their executives on relocation assignments." He noted the increasingly important role of women in residential real estate sales and predicted that recognition of their unique capabilities in this field would accelerate.

WOMEN IN THE FARMINGTON AREA

who want a better, more interesting and more challenging life

CONSIDER A CAREER IN REAL ESTATE

Here is a field where women's imagination, sense of service and understanding of the art of homemaking can reap dividends. NEITHER experience nor a business background is essential provided you are alert and quick to learn.

Among factors which may influence the probability of your success in this profession are:

AGE, APPEARANCE & PERSONALITY

The normal age for successful entry to the field is 30 to 50 years though some deviation is possible. Neat and tasteful dress and personal grooming will be a habit. The ability to meet people easily and confidently is requisite. A good command of the English language is essential.

EDUCATION

High School completion is necessary. Advanced education will be helpful. You MUST agree to complete adult education courses in real estate at the university level (night school). On-the-job training is also required.

BACKGROUND

If married you should not have small children (under 12) at home unless full time live-in assistance is available to them. Widows and divorcees who have previously enjoyed a high standard of living may achieve substantial success. Women who have actively participated in, and/or directed, activities of women's clubs, church groups, charitable drives, civic groups or political parties are likely candidates.

COMPENSATION

Earnings are on a commission basis. We are interested only in sales associates willing to work hard to achieve a minimum annual earning rate of $7,500, within one year. Our estimate of their potential must be $12,000, plus within three years. Outstanding associates earn much more.

GENERAL

Hours are irregular and DO involve substantial evening and week-end work. Only full time associates will be considered. A reasonably late model 5 or 6 passenger automobile in excellent condition is necessary. Good personal and credit references will be required.

INTERESTED?

Think this may be YOUR career opportunity? Like to know more about it? Call Mr. Owen E. Hall at GR. 6-8050 to arrange a personal discussion.
