Six Candidates Vie For C'ville Board

Six candidates seek election to the Clarencville Board of Education. Five have returned questionnaires to the Enterprise so that the voters might be better qualified to make a selection. One, Marshall Fry, has withdrawn from the contest.

Norman Lawrence Hunt, 47, 21215 St. Francis, has a wife, Faith, and two children and is a production manager for Maynard Manufacturing Co. of East Detroit. He was previously a supervisor for Ford Motor Co. Subsequent to graduation from Farmington High School he studied in the field of manufacturing costs and industrial relations. He has been serving on the Clarencville board in an appointed capacity for four months. He is a member of the American Field Service, Edgewood PTA, the board of canvassers, Clarencville Recreation Committee and the Farmington Area Recreation Study Group.

Dr. Herbert P. Kagen, 37, resides at 20361 Weyher with his wife, Pearl, and three children. He is a professor of chemistry at Detroit Institute of Technology, has B.S., M.I.T., M.S. degrees from University of Rhode Island, and a Ph.D. from Wayne State, and has been serving on the school board for four years. He is a member of the American Chemical Society, Michigan College Chemistry Teachers' Association, treasurer of the American Association of University Professors, and an assistant scoutmaster.

Dr. Seymour Roy Rosen, 36, of 19922 Lathers, Livonia, is married to Janet, and they have three children. He attended Wayne State University and the Illinois College of Optometry, and has his optometry practice at 25523 W. Seven Mile Rd. He is a former board member of Hearstone Homeowners' Association and a member of Rotaract PTA.

Harold M. Weiss, 48, has a wife, Mildred, and three children. He lives at 19459 St. Francis and is a graduate of Scott High School in Toledo. He formerly owned a restaurant and is now employed as driver-salesman for Progressive Coverall Supply Co. He is past president of Clarencville Junior-Senior High School PTA and on the board of directors for Livonia Youth, Inc.

Richard J. Wood, 22, of 20279 Gilman, Livonia, has a wife, Shirley, and three children. He attended Henry Ford Community College and Cleary College and is employed as a facility engineer for Ford Motor Co. He was elected to the Clarencville board previously for a four year term. He is a member of the Big Brothers organization and Northeast Livonia Homeowners' Association.

AAUW Honors Mary DeLand

The Farmington Branch, American Association of University Women, has announced a gift of $500 to the Association Educational Foundation's Fellowship Program in the name of Mary DeLand. Miss DeLand is a charter member of the Farmington Branch who served on the Branch Board of Directors.

Miss DeLand's long interest in education is attested by her years of teaching experiences, ranging from Honolulu to the Veterans' Institute in Highland Park. She participated actively in Farmington community life in church, clubs, and as a substitute teacher.

The Farmington Branch, AAUW, honors Mary DeLand in acknowledging her years of service and devotion to the ideals and purposes of AAUW by naming this gift for her. Miss DeLand is now a resident of the Presbyterian Village, Detroit.
