'Garden Ladies' To Add More Classes Next Year

A casual, "come as you are" tea was held in the home of co-chairman Mrs. W. Robert Wichman to honor the members of the Hill and Dale Garden Therapy Group.

A special "thank you" was in order for these members, who, every other Wednesday of the school semester put aside their own problems and activities to concentrate on the handicapped children in the Special Education Department held in Eagle, O. E. Dunkel, Gill and Larkshire Schools in Farmington. They do without thought of reward, except to do what they could to enrich and brighten the lives of these special children and in so doing achieve a good inner feeling for themselves.

Now that the semester is over for them the "Garden Ladies", as the children call them, are free to concentrate on the flowers in their own yards, although most of them will be back when the first school bell rings in September.

THE TEA PROVED to be an informal affair with most of the women sitting on the floor around Mrs. Wichman's large living room coffee table discussing the past season, the coming season and 100 or so various subjects that are only familiar to women.

Mrs. Vernon Vickland will be the Chairman for the group for the 1966-67 season, and she was warmly received.

The members who attended the tea were Mrs. Godfrey Hopper, of Birmingham, Mrs. Donald Jewsbury, Mrs. Earl Johnston, Mrs. John King, Mrs. Clavin O'Dell, Mrs. Calvin Oberhauser, Mrs. William Spears, Mrs. Robert Stevenson, Mrs. Ruth Trombley, Mrs. Vernon Vickland and Mrs. Gerald Wroblewski.

Next season the group hopes to be able to add two more classrooms to their already busy schedule and by so doing
