Old Homestead

SHIRLEY BERGER
 GR. 6-3368
 Old Homestead gala have built up a tradition of one last card party before the school bell stops ringing for the summer. As several times in the past, it took place this year at the lovely poolside of the new residence. The preschoolers are (hopefully) confined to the play area beyond the pool fence so that there isn't be any unexpected ducklings. Adventurous enough to take a plunge that morning were Marilyn Christie and Jean Nankervis. Pretty good form(s) there.
 Enjoying the tasty donuts and coffee were: Hostess Pat Morgan, Dorothy Postup, Sue Latimer, Anne Mullen, Donna Martilla who came along with her mother, Sia Campbell; Suzanne DeWold intriguing everyone with her cute French accent; Doris Weston, Sharon Edwards, Ann Oddo, Beth Doll, Gene Massey, Ann Franklin, Helen Cummins, Rose Gruenwald, Yvonne Craig, Mary Toffoli, Betty Garvode, Alice Scott and Lois Carey.
 Also helping to drain the super-size coffee pot were: Bette Weldon, Ruth Schlottman, Irene Larson, Donna Beck, Mary Checketts, Doris Gaiser, Lee Bensch, Pat Williamson, Madeleine Brack, Anita Kurbach, Joan Primeau, Isabel North, Flo Ziegler, Irene Barth, and Mariellen Greenbury.
 Don and Betty Howe spent their wedding anniversary with Robert and Beth Doll enjoying Mitti Gaynor at the Fisher. Not too long afterward, Bob Howe observed his thirteenth birthday. Cheers, Bob.
 Debbie Carless had a dinner party which went right on to become a slumber party in honor of her birthday. Her guests were: Joanne Craig, Toni Thomas, Jane McNeely, Sarah Caldwell and two more Janes, Nelbert and Randolph.
 Valerie Craig's family were entertaining friends from Chicago and Grand Rapids over Valerie's birthday. The family went to Indianapolis for Memorial Day and Jerry and Brad had a thrilling time at the race.
 Jack DuMarge is rejoicing over a new motor for his mini-bike which he acquired for his fourteenth birthday. John had an exciting Father's Day experience mapped out for him; he accompanied the twins' Scout troop on a 12 mile hike from Farmington to Proulx Lake.
 Robin Brack had a birthday and a ballet recital in the same week. She had eight little friends over for the birthday celebration. Lauren Koush, Janice Charles, Betsy and Cheryl Kobman, Linda Christie, Kathy Wayne, Susie Eckert, and Sandra Smith. At the recital, her group really went 'em with their version of the Can-Can. Brother Jay had a birthday, too. He couldn't be bothered with a party but is no less enjoying his gift, an electric guitar.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. West of 32430 Cloverdale, celebrated their silver anniversary, June 14, at Livonia Knights' Inn. Their guests for dinner were their children, Julie and Roy Hacker, Cynthia and Delbert Miller, and their grandchildren, Jim and Margaret. The couple were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clarke, 32473 Shady Ridge Dr., for a buffet coffee and cake.
