

JACK MILEN, PRESIDENT of Jax Kar Wash, Inc. announced this week that he had added what was formerly Arrow Auto Wash to his other six operations. The new facility is located at Orchard Lake Rd. and Grand River; four are in Detroit, one in Birmingham, and one in Livonia. Milen has been in the car wash business since 1959. The Jax chain is the largest in the United States both in number of units and volume of business. One unique innovation at the Farmington spot will be an invitation to customers to have a free car wash on their birthdays; a driver's license will corroborate the date.

Before retiring Mr. Norton was a building contractor, he had lived in the Farmington area for the past fifteen years. On June 3, of this year Mr. and Mrs. Norton celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary.

Funeral services took place on Friday at 1 p.m. from the Chapel of the Thayer Funeral Home with Rev. Walter C. Blag of Farmington First Baptist Church officiating. Interment took place in Oakland Hills Memorial Cemetery, Novi.

Surviving besides Mrs. Norton are a daughter, Mrs. Helen M. Wheeler of Wayne; and three sons, Reginald L. of Farmington, Edward D. of Williamsburg and Donald J. Norton of Traverse City. Fourteen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren also survive.

Everyone hereabouts is having sundry small celebrations, and why not? The weather couldn't be more perfect. You can dress up and not be drenched, frozen to death, blown apart or completely wilted before reaching your destination. It's stepping-out weather for sure.

To prove it last week, and to surprise expectant Nancy Nell, the local ladies, Pat Gardner, Lenore Medelton, Barbara Rounds, Barbara Salabery, Norma Robinette, Millie Babb, Marge Treganza, Nora Love, Marie Crawford, Charlie LaTonna, and Nancy's mother, Mrs. Eleanor Montgomery of Richmond Michigan, queued up one afternoon at Buford Inn and presented Nancy with an item she has longed for—a colonial baby cradle.

Also stepping out last evening to end activities for the summer were the Crazy Eights, individually known as Barb Carlsie, Mary Ann Pollock, Faith Morgan, Barbara Williams, Barbara Jarvela, Pat Schaefer, Mary Ann Goetz and Bev Manley. They, as you may know, constitute what for want of some specific title is loosely termed a card club. Rumor has it that they've actually been dealing and shuffling the squares this last month. Anyway they donned their finery and dined in style at one of our better nearby bistros, Topinka's Country House.

There was a festive flavor at the Maroon's week-end before last, emanating from a graduation party for Gene. After six years of evening study he took a B.S. in Business Administration at Wayne this month.

The occurrence of such a big event so long in the making demanded a real party. The Maroon's, in the mood of things invited forty guests to their home for the celebration, among them several out of towners. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Olson, Gene's parents, of Wild Rice, N.D. were able to include the big day in a week-long visit. From Marquette and K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base came Captain and Mrs. Steve Balzer, Gene's sister. Annette's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brousseau were there from Alpena as well as her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Tice from Harrisville, Michigan.

The party was a great success with everyone enjoying themselves fully, but despite all the planning a little hitch developed. One person was missing all the fun and that was Annette. The week preceding the festivities she developed gall bladder troubles and was sent summarily to New Grace Hospital by her physician to await surgery. To top it off, Annette was out of circulation for her birthday too, which fell on the seventeenth. Now there's a clear case of Gumperson's Law in action!

Enders have sure had their share of parties lately. First was the big bowling victory celebration for forty, at which it is reported everyone had a great time, and last Saturday came Sandy's birthday party. Although this wasn't quite such a big affair, Sandy, Lynn Schaefer, John Newman, Gerald Bartlett, Lee Ann Perry, Lori Arvison, Jimmy and Laurie Olson, Annette Melsner, Julie Elder and Linda Larlins had lots of fun playing games with prizes and eating birthday fare.

Aside from Sandy and Annette, a birthday bow should be taken by Delphine Duda. Anniversaries were celebrated on the seventeenth by Darlene and Ron Tomecek, and on the twentieth by Mary and Ed Olsewski, and Nona and Tom Behrend. Tom and Nona celebrated early, enjoying thoroughly the preceding week-end spent at Bella Vista Resort in Caseville without the kids.

Kenneth and Elizabeth Cheyene of Tuck Rd. last week enjoyed a visit from a relative and rather distinguished lady, formerly from the area. Elizabeth's sister, Mrs. Jeanette Adams who was Mrs. Ohio from Mothers' Day 1965 to 1966, spent a week here with her children Karen, John and Wendy, after which she returned to her home in Dayton.

Here. The frosty taste of Fresca. It's a blizzard.

Fresca is the new cold drink with the frosty, cold taste.

And of course, it's sugar-free.

Just how refreshing is Fresca? This refreshing:

Icy, biting, bold, cold, frosty, wintry, breezy, shivering, shimmering, shuddering, stinging, springy, sparkling, splashing, nipping, chilling, lively, light, bright, brisk, bouncing, bubbling, piercing, nearly freezing, and almost shocking.

There's never been a taste so refreshing.

It's a blizzard.
