

Questers Meet, Visit Farm

On June 15 the Quakertown Questers annual luncheon was held at the Round Table of the Mayflower Hotel through the courtesy of Mrs. Howard Dow. Mrs. H. P. Adams, the past President presented to the new President, Mrs. F. R. Harding, the portfolio and a small bell which is used by all presidents. After the luncheon the group went to visit the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Banks of North Territorial Road, Plymouth. The home is a lovely restored farm house. Mrs. Banks conducted a tour of the home and told about the many pieces of Shaker furniture collected by Mr. and Mrs. Banks and are in use by the family. Among the pieces were many chairs with the original seats and backs of woven tapes, a very high chest, a blanket chest and deacon benches. Pieces of spatter ware, Gaudy Dutch meetings. The next meeting and Shaker baskets were also admired. One rare article was a Shaker bee hive, woven with the same material as the baskets. Members present were Mrs. H. P. Adams, Mrs. M. B. Bresler, Mrs. Philip Day, Mrs. Howard Dow, Mrs. E. L. Draper, Mrs. F. R. Harding, Mrs. B. J. Thompson, Mrs. R. J. Truesdell and Mrs. Harold Humble. The members are grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Banks for graciously receiving them and to Mrs. Howard Dow for her kindness in arranging the luncheon reservation. It was unanimously agreed to make Mrs. E. L. Brunk who recently moved to Rose City, an honorary member of the Quakertown Questers and it is hoped that she may find it possible to attend some future spatter ware, Gaudy Dutch meetings. The next meeting and Shaker baskets were also

MARK CHRISTOPHER

Farmington Enterprise Newsboy Of The Week

Stepping into the spotlight as Newsboy of the Week is Mark Christopher, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wayne Christopher, 2332 Glencastle Dr. He delivers approximately 130 papers weekly in and around Lincolnshire Estates Subdivision. Mark is 15 and in the tenth grade at Our Lady of Sorrows High School. Sharing his dining room table at home are three brothers and one sister, Wayne, Mike, Craig, and Carla. The Christophers have lived in Farmington for two and a half years. Mark's father is director of development for the Sisters of Mercy. Mark asserts that he would like to be a professional basketball player or an Olympic track man. Sports are just about the chief interest in his life just now. Mark is a track letterman, participates in junior varsity basketball, is a swimmer, baseball, football, soccer, table tennis, tennis, and handball player, and an active winter sports enthusiast. When for some reason it is inconvenient to be engaged in sports activities, Mark builds model cars and planes, foos with his train tables and slot car tracks.

Girl Scout News

BY BEA SCAGLIONE
When a Girl Scout is about to move from one program level to another, she begins to wonder: What will it be like? What will she be doing? How different will it be? This is the perfect time for a "Bridging Activity"—a get-together with girls who are already there, to find out for themselves a little of what lies ahead.

The Senior Scouts of Troop 175 of North Farmington High School planned and carried out a "Bridging" get-together for girls who will be Seniors next fall. They invited girls from Troop 122, Duncel Jr. High, with their leader, Mrs. Gerald Nurnoff, and girls from East Junior High with their leader, Mrs. Hines, to a regular Tuesday evening meeting. They met at the home of their leader, Mrs. John W. Lovett.

When the Cadettes arrived, each girl was paired with a Senior "buddy" for the evening. The Seniors gave a brief resume of their duties and activities, and then led their new friends in some "Get-acquainted" games. By the time refreshments were served, the Cadettes had exchanged their curiosity for eager enthusiasm. . . just can't WAIT for next year's scouting to begin!
