Students-To-Be See WMU Campus

Most of the more than 2400 freshmen and 1200 transfer students who will enter Western Michigan University this fall will know something of campus activities and landmarks when they arrive, thanks to the university's summer orientation program.

The incoming students, often accompanied by their parents, are visiting the WMU campus this summer to map out future study programs, meet their counselors and learn their way around university buildings.

When WMU's Fall semester begins on August 29, the students need only check into their living quarters on the opening Monday and begin classes on Tuesday, August 30.

Students from the Farmington area who have visited the WMU campus are: Charles Hatfield, David Steven, Gleney Anglebrandt, Randy Adams, Sandra Barry, and Leslie Scott.

U.M. Graduates Driver Trainers

Two teachers from Farmington were among 53 educators from across the state who graduated from a driver education institute at the University of Michigan Friday, June 24.

Scholarships for all those attending the institute were provided by Automobile Club of Michigan.

This was the 37th Institute co-sponsored by the University of Michigan, State Department of Public Instruction and Auto Club to qualify Michigan teachers as driver education instructors.

This year's graduates join 2,200 driver education instructors in Michigan. During the 1966-67 school year, they will teach approximately 155,000 youths at 525 high schools how to drive.

orato, Mrs. Roger Baker, sister of the groom, from Highland and Martha Hamilton, sister of the bride from Milford, were dressed in controlled A-line aqua organza gowns with matching lace bodices. Their bouquets were of yellow shasta mums and yellow rosebuds.

Robert A. Prior Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Prior, 853 Ardiale, Milford, chose for his best man Larry Banish from Warren, Michigan who was assisted by the ushers, Jim Kauppi, Jim Prior, brother of the groom and Stoddard Hamilton, brother of the bride all from Milford.

As "Trumpet Voluntary" by Purcell was played by the church organist, Mrs. Lowell Newcomb, the bridesmaids approached the altar followed by the ring bearer, Michael Scott Prior, brother of the groom. During the double ring ceremony as the couple stood in front of the altar, Dee Zemanek of Saginaw sang the prayer, "Jesus Stand Beside Them" Austin Lovelace.

The mothers were formally dressed in complimentary colors. Mrs. Hamilton in a salmon pink crepe and Mrs. Prior in soft blue crepe with matching lace bodice.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony and as the young couple started to cut the cake they were serenaded by a group of the bride's sorority sisters from Alpha Chi Omega.

Out-of-state guests were Eon and Vince Westland of Independence, Missouri grandparents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Don Francis and family of Lansing, uncle and aunt of the groom; Mrs. Erma Knotts of Berkeley, great aunt of the bride; and her cousins, David and Allen Knotts. Besides these relatives there were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frank and son Everett of Rochester, New York, friends of the groom and numerous friends and relatives from Detroit, Milford, Ann Arbor and Farmington.

After a honeymoon tour of northern Michigan, Canada and New York State the couple will return to Ann Arbor. The bride, a graduate of the University of Michigan, and her husband, a graduate of Western Michigan University, will both be teaching in the Farmington Public Schools this fall.
