

Garner-Brook Vows Spoken In Candlelight

Andree Leigh Garner was united in marriage with Douglas Alan Brook at a candlelight ceremony held in the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington on Sunday, July 3 with Rev. Ralph Stribe as officiating clergyman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Garner, 7475 Cornwell Court, Birmingham. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Brook of 24524 Petersburg, East Detroit.

Andree's bridal gown of silk organza was fashioned with an A-line skirt and detachable train. Its neckline was edged with French embroidered medallions which were repeated on the skirt. Her silk organza pillbox topped a cathedral-length veil, and she carried a cascade of gardenias, stephanotis, and eucharis with dracena foliage.

Her attendants were gowned in peal pink and white checked waffle floor-length dresses with Empire silhouettes and French silk floral trimming on the sleeves. They carried garden baskets of pink rosebuds and ivy and the bridesmaids were matching cicles of fresh flowers.

Acting as matron of honor was Mrs. Gary League of LaGrange, Ill., and bridesmaids were Eula Stidler of Wyandotte and Aileen Garner, sister of the bride.

For his best man, the groom chose his brother, David Lee Brook. Ushers were Donald Brook, another brother, Thomas Brown of Ann Arbor, Keith Molin, and Daniel McKinnon.

The bride's mother was attended in a floor-length gown of candlelight crepe with a sleeveless skimmer silhouette and obi panel. A matching jacket of Alecon lace with scalloped edges and a Dior bow trim topped the gown, and an open pillbox of matching crepe with a butterfly veil completed the ensemble.

A floor-length gown of powder blue silk crepe was the choice of the groom's mother. It had an Empire waistline, a Spanish bolero jacket and small matching hat.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Green Oaks Country Club with music supplied by the Vince Mance Trio.

To Mary Jane McCarthy, friend of the bride, was assigned the honor of cutting the cake.

The bride's traveling costume was a jacket dress of aqua linen, and the honeymoon destination was Washington, D.C. and the surrounding Virginia area.

After their return, the couple will be at home in Ann Arbor.

Forest Park Garden Club Stages Summer Show

"Song For A Little House", a cheerful little poem by Christopher Morley, was the theme of the flower show staged by the Forest Park Garden Club on Saturday, June 22. Flower arrangements were placed upstairs in different rooms of the house and horticultural specimens were attractively arranged downstairs in a pink rose bouquet for a little girl's room, and a vase of bright eyed daisies on the kitchen table. Her classic white arrangement graced the tea table.

Mrs. Doris Freeman won the blue ribbon for her majestic arrangement for the coffee table. Mrs. Helen Moorhouse won a second place ribbon for her beautiful arrangement of the vestibule, a pink rose bouquet for a little girl's room, and Mrs. Pat Anderson was prize taker of blue ribbon in the horticultural class with specimens from her yard and house plants. Mrs. Gail Perrin won a blue ribbon for her lovely pinudron, and Mrs. Barbara Mazon won for her roses.

Other arrangers entered in the show were Mrs. Rita Crudele, Mrs. Barbara Mazon, Mrs. Gail Perrin, Mrs. Faith Rickey, Mrs. Dene Heumann, Mrs. Jackie Knobby, who deserve credit for their worthwhile efforts in producing a colorful and delightful show.

The boys of Scout Troop 124 and Explorer Post 45 demonstrated what soil erosion does to clean waterways. The girls of Scout Troop 44 exhibited dried Michigan flowers and weeds and materials used for drying them.

Red Cross Offers New Record

Beginning the first week in July, Red Cross Volunteers from Home recording opportunities for families of servicemen and Peace Corps members, as well as foreign students, can be made every Monday, Tuesday, and Friday at the Oakland Regional Office, 218 Franklin Blvd. in Pontiac.

As part of a Red Cross step-up program for Vietnam, Volunteers from Home records cut by members of families of servicemen overseas or in military hospitals here in the States or families of Peace Corps members are sent free of charge. (Foreign students may also cut records, but must pay the postage.) These recordings have been proven to be great morale boosters for the men overseas.

For an appointment to record the 12 1/2 minute message, call Red Cross.

Joyce Van Sickle Appointed By WMU

Mrs. Joyce Van Sickle, 25235 Halstead Road, has been appointed area chairman for the 1968 Western Michigan University Alumni annual giving campaign. Mrs. Van Sickle, (the former Joyce Wheaton) is a 1961 graduate of Western Michigan University.

As Area Chairman she will be responsible for the coordination of the University's fund-raising activities in Farmington. The Western Michigan University Alumni Association is seeking to raise $100,000 from alumni and friends of the University to provide financial assistance to those areas for which no state money is available.
