

Barbara Lynne Timmer Weds Gerald Van Diepen

At a double ring ceremony performed by two officiating ministers on August 6, in Jenison, Michigan, Barbara Lynne Timmer became the bride of Gerald Dennis Van Diepen. Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Timmer of 31195 Bycroft, Farmington. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Van Diepen of Ocheysdan, Iowa. The two pearls outlined bodice and panel. Her elbow-length nylon veil was held with a cluster of white flowers, and she carried a topiary of white mums with yellow and white streamers. Nancy Timmer fulfilled the duties of maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Joanne Schutte of Sibley, Iowa, cousin of the bridegroom; Mary and Muriel VanDiepen, sisters, and Brenda Vandepolder of Kalamazoo.

They were gowned alike in yellow floor-length sheaths fashioned with Empire waists. Their headpieces were yellow nylon net floral clusters decorated with flowers resembling bells of Ireland. They carried nosegays of white daisies and pompons with white ribbon streamers.

John Van Diepen acted as his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Kim Victor and Ted Schutte of Sibley, and ushers were Dick Timmer, brother of the bride and Doug Schutte, a cousin of the bridegroom.

Organ selections, "Trumpet Tune" by Purcell and "Largo" were played by Mrs. Rosalia Gaschwendt. Vocal selections by Mrs. Henry Pyle were "The Lord's Prayer" and "O, Lord Most Holy."

For her costume, the bride's mother chose a sheath of champagne crepe fashioned with a lace bodice. Gold hat and gloves and yellow roses completed the ensemble.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in light beige lace with which she wore a multi-colored hat and yellow roses.

Following the ceremony, a buffet supper was served in a setting with a yellow color scheme at Finger's Restaurant, Grand Rapids.

Dennis Timmer of Wayne, Michigan presided at the guest register. Mr. and Mrs. Doug Dubola of Jenison were master and mistress of ceremonies.

At the gift table were Mr. John Van Diepen of Sibley and Nella Shoemaker of Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Van Diepen of Zeeland, Michigan assisted at the punch bowl.

For traveling, the bride changed to a three piece suit of yellow linen. The couple left for a trip to the eastern states and upon their return will reside in Sheldon, Iowa.

The bride was graduated this year from Northwestern College of Orange City, Iowa. The bridegroom received his degree from the same school one year earlier and has been teaching the sixth grade in George, Iowa.
