Cox Family Has Reunion

The annual Cox family reunion was held last Sunday at Camp Dearborn in Milford with 94 people in attendance. These are descendants of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Cox who came from Somersetshire, England in 1860 and lived on Thirteen Mile Rd. near Drake Rd. until their deaths in 1904 and 1907.

Families who came the farthest to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Meeten from Clay Center, Kansas and Mr. and Mrs. Leo McCarty from Concordia, Kansas. The oldest person attending was 90 year old Mrs. Jennie Cox Zingelmann and the youngest was one-year-old Debby Carlson.

Others were from the communities of Detroit, Lansing, Howell, Pontiac, Brighton, Drayton Plains, and Gregory with many from the Farmington area including the families of John Cox, Earl Cox, Herald Cox, Robert Neff, Ray Layland, Don Layland, Robert Briggs, and Mrs. Zingelmann.

This group has met annually since 1920, with occasional get-togethers before then including Mr. and Mrs. John Cox's fifty-fifth wedding anniversary in 1903 which was duly recorded in the Enterprise.
