

11 Families To Host Students

Eleven families in Farmington will be sharing in "Operation Friendship," sponsored each year by the Birmingham Alumnae Chapter of the University of Michigan.

Most of the students will be here for a year or two engaged in study, and September 10 and 11 will be their first meeting with an American family in an American home.

Families who will be having week-end guests are the following: Sidney Albrecht, 2834 Greythorne; Henry Grimshaw, 3444 Chantilly Court; Oris Op't Holt, 2435 Quaker Valley Road; Robert Chesley, 2378 Longacre; Robert Taylor, 3211 Wayburn; George Otis, 3329 Normanhurst; Allan Kennerson, 2363 Longacre; Kenneth Abbott, 3238 Nottingham; Mary Brassert, 2074 Village Lane; and Robert McMath, 3006 Old Bedford.

Visiting in all of suburban Detroit there will be about 12 foreign students from all over the world. Mrs. William R. Parsons, 2345 Ridgewood Dr., who is a member of the Alumnae Chapter, has been in charge in Farmington.

NINE STUDENTS from Colombia, South America who are engaged in an Experiment in International Living stayed in Farmington for a period of three weeks. Various families have played host to the young men shown in the picture. From left are

'Focus On Farmington' Hill & Dale Club Show

The summer months usually mean a decrease in activities for most garden clubs. Not so with Hill & Dale Garden Club of Farmington. These gals have used the hot weather as an inspiration to plan a spectacular flower show for October 8.

The show, called "Focus on Farmington," will honor many local groups and will take inspiration from our community's historical past as well as its exciting future. Mrs. John King as chairman of the show has chosen Our Lady of Sorrows Church as the place. Flower shows seem to be a major interest of many of the members. The following women were chosen to exhibit at the State Fair: Mrs. Robert Giles, Mrs. Walter Frisch, Mrs. Warren Kruger, Mrs. Fred Bulman, Mrs. John King and Mrs. William Wickman. Mrs. Wickman's daughter, Debbie, took an exciting second place in the junior division.

Hill & Dale's regular meeting will have as its program a panel discussion titled "Focus on Flower Shows." The panel members include Mrs. Calvin Oppenheimer, Mrs. Edward Rosinski, Mrs. Thomas Simmons, Mrs. John King, Mrs. Warren Kruger, Mrs. Richard Steiger and Mrs. Kenneth Trombley. Mrs. Clayton O'Dell is hostess chairman.

Students From Colombia Visit Farmington Families

Nine electrical engineering students from Popayan, Colombia, South America, paid a three week visit to Farmington under the auspices of the Experiment in International Living program.

They left for New York on August 27, remained there until the 31st then went on to Washington, D.C.

The main purpose of the visit was to be part of an American family. While here they visited the University of Michigan looking into its labs and libraries, the Burroughs computer plant, Chrysler Engineering Lab.

They saw a Detroit-Baltimore baseball game, and the young people of Antioch Lutheran Church took them to a picnic at Camp Dearborn. Host families included the Howard Bonnes of 21306 Whittington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Briggs of 21615 Oxford, the Edge Copes of 22718 Longacre, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Eckhold of 30148 Pipers Lane Ct., the George Pezerys of 25108 Castlereigh Dr., the George Greiners of 21311 Ontaga, the Dale Johnsons of 26342 Dundalk Lane, Rev. and Mrs. Carl Kalreider of 31132

Bycroft and the Harold Nielsens of 32357 Bonnet Hill.
