Patricia Ann Jones Weds W. E. Ranck Jr. In St. Joe

Patricia Ann Jones of Benton Harbor and William Edward Ranck Jr. of Farmington were united in marriage on September 3 in St. Peter's United Church of Christ, St. Joseph, Michigan. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wright Jones. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Ranck Sr. of 29820 Woodbrook Rd.

The bridal gown was styled in an Empire A line with elbow-length sleeves and fashioned of silk-faced peau de sole trimmed with Alençon lace at the hem and lace also bordered the detachable chapel train.

Her headdress was a lace pillbox accented with pearls which secured her three-tiered fingertip veil of white silk illusion. Her traditional bouquet was composed of white roses and ivy.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Susan Sullivan of Grand Rapids. Her bridesmaids included Janet Stewart and Mrs. David Davison of Grand Rapids, Margo Geyer of Saginaw, and Mrs. Donald Meyer of Benton Harbor.

The attendants wore identical floor-length gowns of willow green peau de sole with matching A line coats. Their face veils were attached to bows of the dress color, and they carried cascade bouquets of variegated carnations in shades of pink and rose. A suit of royal grape shade with matching pillbox was the choice of the bride's mother. With it she wore matching accessories and a corsage of pale pink roses.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a gold silk sheath with ribbon jacket and matching hat and accessories. A green-gold orchid was the floral decoration on her bag. Mrs. David Bing provided the music which was a group of Norwegian classical selections.

Best man to the bridegroom was his brother Bruce. Ushers were Edward Dubault,
